HOLOCAUST REVISIONISM IN ENGLISH

NEW :

An early attempt to "refute" the famous "Protocols".

Herman Bernstein, The History of a Lie, New York, J.S. Ogilvie Publisher, 1921, 104 p. <pdf> 5 M.

L'auteur voit aux Protocols surtout une origine allemande, recyclée par des "mystiques" russes comme Nilus. Il reprend ensuite la célèbre légende du cimetière de Prague, qui vient encore récemment de faire les délices d'Umberto Eco qui ne recule devant rien pour remplir son tiroir-caisse. (Voir, justement, Le Cimetière de Prague, Grasset, 2011.) Ensuite, il aborde le rôle de personnages fumeux comme Retcliffe, Butmi, etc. pour retomber - miraculeusement - sur les Cent-Noir. La légende sort ainsi tout armée de la cuisse de Bernstein, et dès 1921.

L'heure est aux bombardements. Les leçons du Viêt-Nam sont oubliées, ou abolies. Le monde doit se mobiliser pour écraser cette bande de scorpions. SMASH USA !

Is the Holocaust Industry singing its swan-song? The spring of 1988 will see a flurry of international conferences, where participants will desperately be seeking ways to halt the onslaught of Holocaust Revisionism -- the school of thought which regards the "Holocaust" as a gross and vulgar exaggeration.

In April 1988 -- coinciding with Hitler's birthday -- a conference at Hofstra University on Long Island, NY will discuss possible ways to introduce "race relations" laws into the United States. The focus of the meeting will be to figure out ways to circumvent (or overturn?) the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which guarantees free speech.

Twenty-three years later, we stand at the same point : They did not win, and we have not yet prevailed...

Declassified State document. Mollah Omar speaks on the phone with a US diplomat in Pakistan (in 1998). He warns that blind bombings by US Air Force are likely to propel opposition. He also asks for evidence on Bin Laden whom he knows as a nice guy. Twelve years later, the situation is the same; if they want to negotiate, the Americans would rather give answers to those questions, and to some others. The Wikileaks documents should provide a legal basis for putting on trial a number of high-ranking US advisers and military officers. Hopefully, some of them should be hanged at those few remaining lamp-posts in the ruins of Kabul, thus providing a just follow-up to the acclaimed Nurnberg Trials...

How was it that, at a time when trade and the need for capital were growing, the Jews, who were reputed to be among the great capitalists of Europe, were expelled from England ? How did Edward, a king who was in debt from the moment he began to reign till the end, bring himself to give up the revenue that his father and grandfather had derived from the Jews ? How could he, as an honourable king, drive out subjects who were protected by a Charter that one of his predecessors had granted, and another had solemnly confirmed ?

This study sheds light on the suffering of tens of thousands of Palestinians whom, since 1967 to this day, are prevented from returning to their villages in Latroun, while at the same time the ruins of their homes are built upon by an Occupying Power the deep-rooted Palestinian history of the land is concealed by parks for Israelis to enjoy their barbecues, masking the crimes and human rights violations committed. Complicit in these violations are organisations based in Canada, a modern democracy which has ratified the principle instruments of international human rights and humanitarian law, which and pushed for the establishment of the International Criminal Court.

254 p. <pdf> 1,3M

Advance to Barbarism was first published in England in 1948. It was a noteworthy little book because it dealt for the first time with such then recent innovations as the indiscriminate bombing of civilian populations and the trial of prisoners of war by their captors as symptoms of a world-wide development which had begun in 1914. At the time of its publication this point of view was considered so wilfully perverse that no British newspaper with a national circulation would review this book. (Lord Hankey)

This eloquent work traces the evolution of warfare from primitive savagery to the rise of a "civilized" code of armed conflict that was first threatened in the US civil war, and again in the First World War, and was finally shattered during the Second World War. The ensuing "War Crimes Trials" at Nuremberg and Tokyo, and their more numerous and barbaric imitations in Communist-controlled eastern Europe, Veale argues, established the perilous principle that "the most serious war crime is to be on the losing side."

Heretical Two In British Jail

Satire demonized and criminalized in Britain

From the site of Michael Hoffman, 3 p. <pdf>

The "revisionist community," with some notable exceptions (Lady Michelle Renouf, Dr. Robert Faurisson, Willis Carto, Herman Otten) is reluctant to mention Tales of the Holofoax in connection with the plight of the "Heretical Two." The publication itself and the heretics who circulated it would now be a cause célèbre if the current "revisionist community" had any of the public relations instincts of Ernst Zundel.

In the 2009 Christmas list of imprisoned revisionists and their jailhouse mailing addresses circulated around the Internet and published in certain revisionist newsletters, under the names Sheppard and Whittle the reason given for their incarceration was an oddly generic one: "sought asylum in the U.S." But the reason they were asylum seekers was noticeably absent. By this omission, reference to Tales of the Holofoax and its author were sent down the memory hole -- by revisionists themselves.

Sutton's next three major published books Wall Street and the Bolshevik Revolution, Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler and Wall Street and FDR detailed Wall Street's involvement in the Russian Revolution as well as its decisive contributions to the rise of Adolf Hitler and Franklin Delano Roosevelt. His books became classics in the study of covert politics and economics in the twentieth century. In Sutton's own words he was "persecuted but never prosecuted" for his research and subsequent publication of his findings.

The Chomsky-Blankfort Polemic

Interview de Jeffrey Blankfort par Silvia Cattori

Signs of Times, 20 Feb. 2006, 7 p., <pdf> 80K

Chomsky tends to simplify US politics, blaming everything on the elites and whoever is in the White House while avoiding the role of Congress. Today, eleven members of the Senate are Jewish, that is 11 % of the 100 members while only 2 % of the American population is Jewish. He and his supporters, either directly or indirectly, raise the spectre of anti-Semitism, of provoking anti-Semitism, and what happens is that people keep their mouth shut. Now, Chomsky, who was a Zionist when he was younger he lived in Israel, he has friends in Israel, was considering moving to Israel admitted in 1974 that this might influence his perspective and he wanted his readers to know that. He wrote this in 1974 and yet few people who read Chomsky today know that. They do not know that he was Zionist, that he considered living in Israel.

Therefore, if this assimilationist attitude was to be replaced by a revival of Jewish separatism, anti-Semitism would have to be welcomed, even promoted, by Zionism as confirming its dogma and reversing the process of assimilation.

Zionists from the beginning welcomed anti-Semitism as a means of undermining what Zionists believed was the sense of false security of Jews in western, liberal societies, and as the means by which Jews would be kept in a permanent state of neurosis. Large and powerful organisations such as the US-based Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'rith exist mainly for the purpose of exaggerating the extent of anti-Semitism in order to keep Jews under the Zionist heel and keep the coffers for Israeli causes filled.

The Anglo-American Establishment
New York, Books in Focus, 1981, digitized by Mrkva 2000, 289 p. <pdf> 2M.

In his book The Anglo-American Establishment: From Rhodes to Cliveden, written in 1949 but published posthumously in 1981, Quigley purports to trace the history of a secret society founded in 1891 by Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Milner. The society consisted of an inner circle ("The Society of the Elect") and an outer circle ("The Association of Helpers"). The society as a whole does not have a fixed name:

This society has been known at various times as Milner's Kindergarten, as the Round Table Group, as the Rhodes crowd, as The Times crowd, as the All Souls group, and as the Cliveden set. ... I have chosen to call it the Milner group. Those persons who have used the other terms, or heard them used, have not generally been aware that all these various terms referred to the same Group. It is not easy for an outsider to write the history of a secret group of this kind, but, since no insider is going to do it, an outsider must attempt it. It should be done, for this Group is, as I shall show, one of the most important historical facts of the twentieth century.

Quigley assigns this group primary or exclusive credit for several historical events: the Jameson Raid, the Second Boer War, the founding of the Union of South Africa, the replacement of the British Empire with the Commonwealth of Nations, and a number of Britain's foreign policy decisions in the twentieth century.

These volumes will explain why the West built the Soviets and Hitler; why we go to war, to lose; why Wall Street loves Marxists and Nazis; why the kids can't read; why the Churches have become propaganda founts; why historical facts are suppressed, why politicians lie and a hundred other whys. If I have a magnum opus, this is it.

We are going to argue and present detailed precise evidence (including names, dates and places) that the only reasonable explanation for recent history in the United States is that there exists a conspiracy to use political power for ends which are inconsistent with the Constitution. This is known by the official historians as the "devil theory of history," which again is a quick, cheap device for brushing facts under the rug. However, these critics ignore, for example, the Sherman Act, i.e., the anti-trust laws where conspiracy is the basic accepted theory. If there can be a conspiracy in the market place, then why not in the political arena? Are politicians any purer than businessmen? Following the antitrust laws we know that conspiracy can only be proven in a specific manner. A similar pattern of market actions is not proof of conspiracy. Just because something looks like a duck, walks like a duck, and all the ducks act similarly, does not make it a duck - or a conspiracy. Under the Sherman Act a similar pattern of prices, where all prices are the same, is not proof of conspiracy. Similarity of prices can occur in a purely competitive market. Neither is similar political action necessarily a conspiracy.

Proof of conspiracy requires specific types of evidence, i.e.: (a) there must be secret meetings of the participants and efforts made to conceal joint actions, (b) those meetings must jointly agree to take a course of action, (c) and this action must be illegal.

The Nazis' Murder of Jews, Communists and Gypsies In Gas Chambers Was an AMERICAN Idea

Extracted from the Washington's Blog, 20 Feb. 2010, 5 p., <pdf> 200K

The concept of a white, blond-haired, blue-eyed master Nordic race didn't originate with Hitler. The idea was created in the United States, and cultivated in California, decades before Hitler came to power. California eugenicists played an important, although little-known, role in the American eugenics movement's campaign for ethnic cleansing.

Eugenics was the pseudoscience aimed at "improving" the human race. In its extreme, racist form, this meant wiping away all human beings deemed "unfit," preserving only those who conformed to a Nordic stereotype. Elements of the philosophy were enshrined as national policy by forced sterilization and segregation laws, as well as marriage restrictions, enacted in 27 states. In 1909, California became the third state to adopt such laws. Ultimately, eugenics practitioners coercively sterilized some 60,000 Americans, barred the marriage of thousands, forcibly segregated thousands in "colonies," and persecuted untold numbers in ways we are just learning. Before World War II, nearly half of coercive sterilizations were done in California, and even after the war, the state accounted for a third of all such surgeries.

We state that Israel supported the United States in the Korean War; aided France and the Terrorist Secret Army Organization [OAS] in Algeria against the Algerian Revolution; opposed the anti-colonial independence movements in Morocco, Tunisia, Indonesia and elsewhere; trained the counter-revolutionary para-commandos of General Mobutu who was one of the persons responsible for the murder of Patrice Lumumba in the Congo, and presently provides arms and other equipment to the Portuguese troops fighting against the Angolan and Mozambican freedom fighters. We demand that all military aid or assistance of any kind to Israel must stop... We call for Afro-American solidarity with the Palestinian people's struggle for National Liberation and to regain all of their stolen land.

We rarely hear that kind of language nowadays. Would that mean that our beloved Afroamerican brothers are somewhat sleepy ?

It is worse than the entry of Nabucco's armored divisions into Jerusalem. The archaeologists' airforce together with the epigraphists heavy artillery pounded and flattened the so-called Holy Story, and, as a result, the Jewish story. Of David remains very little. Salomon, forget him. All the so-called "Jewish Historians" may be thrown in the dustbin. Jewish History has been "invented" (word coined by Liverani, usually quite shy) around the time of the transfer to Babylon (5 to 6th century Before). It's a radical revision, which uproots centuries of legends and tales used by the Jews to build up privileges and submit the Christian churches. The 5000 year story shrinks into a 5 century blabla. This is a first opening.

No other American-and only a few individuals throughout the world-has left such a strong mark on so many aspects of the twentieth century: from poetry to economics, from theater to philosophy, from politics to pedagogy, from Provençal to Chinese. If Pound was not always totally accepted, at least he was unavoidably there.

Those traits of mind and character that made Pound so inescapable are not only evident in the broadcasts but also present in ways that make them more fully understandable. Here is that same fearless plunge toward the heart of the matter-often heedless of consistencies-that marked his study of ancient and exotic languages and cultures. Here is that same urge to simplify and instruct that marked his unorthodox textbooks: ABC of Economics, ABC of Reading and the rest.

The Jews

Londres, Constable, 1922, <pdf>, digitized by Internet Archive (Un. de Toronto) for Microsoft in 2007, 334 p. 10M.

THE THESIS OF THIS BOOK: The Jews are an alien body within the society they inhabit hence irritation and friction a problem is presented by the strains thus set up the solution of that problem is urgently necessary. An alien body in any organism is disposed of in one of two ways : elimination and segregation. Elimination may be by destruction, by excretion or by absorption in the case of the Jews the first is abominable and, further, has failed the second means exile : it has also failed the third, absorption, the most probable and most moral, has failed throughout the past, though having everything in its favour. There remains segregation, which may be of two forms : hostile to, or careless of, the alien body, or friendly to it and careful of its good in this latter form it may best be called Recognition. The first kind of segregation has often been attempted in history it has been partially successful over long periods but has always left behind it a sense of injustice and has not really solved the problem also it has always failed in the end. The true solution is in the second kind of segregation, that is, recognition on both sides of a separate Jewish nationality.

ASSESSMENT OF CORRUPTION IN AFGHANISTAN

USAID, <pdf> 90 p. 500K

Corruption, defined as "the abuse of public position for private gain" is a significant and growing problem across Afghanistan that undermines security, development, and state and democracy-building objectives. Pervasive, entrenched, and systemic corruption is now at an unprecedented scope in the country's history. Thirty years of conflict that has weakened underdeveloped state institutions and the country's social fabric, Afghanistan's dominant role in worldwide opium and heroin production, and the tremendous size and diversity of international security, humanitarian and development assistance all increase Afghanistan's vulnerability to corruption.

The great general and conquistador Alexander the Great has been through Afghanistan, 2350 years ago ! With his Macedonian forces, he ran into the valleys, around the central massive mountains. He, and all the other great soldiers of the Antiquity knew fully well that one should not attack the mountaineers in their native districts. US generals, who do not suspect the existence of Antiquity, ran in the trap and attacked the mountaineers at home. They should better not ask us how the move backward away from the trap. Be they damned and die there!

They now discover "corruption" (What about "corruption" in the States ?) in the client state on which they build all their future options. They should remember the regime of General Nguyễn Văn Thiệu... The secret is simple ; there has never been a State in Afghanistan, only a motley collection of tribes loosely connecting traditional big families. Hence, corruption is in itself the State !

The Slaying of Father Thomas al-Capuci and his servant Ibrahim Amarah in Damascus, 1840 A.D.

Version anglaise de la fameuse thèse de Mustafa Tlass, publiée à Damas en 1991. <pdf> 152 p. 1M.

Traduit du français en anglais

L'acharnement négationniste :

Sir Moses Montefiore arrived in Damascus on July 3, 1849. Sir Moses had the courage to go, in person, to the Church, [where Father Thomas is buried] and in the presence of two priests he copied the text in Arabic and Italian languages. It appears that there was some doubt regarding the accuracy of the text....

The tombstone in the Capucin Church in Damascus, as a reminder of Father Thomas' death, became a source of continuous concern for Sir Moses. In order to request the assistance of the French Government, Sir Moses and Lady Montefiore returned to Paris during the month of December, 1849. In Paris, Sir Moses met with General Lafitte, the Minister of Foreign Affairs; and soon thereafter he was received by Louis-Napoleon, the President of the Republic.

According to Sir Moses, the following conversation took place at the Elysee Palace with the Future Emperor of France: "He received me with a great welcome....Then I asked His permission for me to read my request. He listened with great attention and expressed His agreement many times. And when I finished reading He said: 'I shall give direct and strong orders; I am very happy to be able to serve a rightful cause!'" [Les Napoléons, toujours prêts à lécher du juif].

In 1855 Sir Moses was planning to travel again to Palestine. During his stop in Paris he presented to the Emperor, through the French Ambassador, a request for a directive to be sent to the French Ambassador in Damascus to secure the theft of the hostile anti-semitic document from the Capucins' Church. There was no apparent response. [Matzo, en anglais c'est le pain azyme]

The Barnes Review*, XIV, 5, Sep.Oct. 2008, translated from German into American, <pdf> 73 p., 4,1M

How could such a book escape publication in the United States? For that matter, why has no one ever translated the book into English? The title should help us understand why this book has been banned and suppressed since the day it was completed. The title of the volume we are reviewing is, simply, The Jews in the Soviet Union. This volume is part two of Solzhenitsyn's massive two-book series 200 Years Together.

Pressure from extremely powerful Zionist sources, as you have already figured out by the title, has kept this valuable work from reaching readers in the West. And the reason for that will become obvious once you dive into this issue of The Barnes Review. It details, with great precision, the Jewish involvement in the creation of Bolshevism and communism and the willing participation of Jews in perpetrating the worst mass murders of the 20th century-crimes which dwarf claims about the so-called "holocaust." Now they are trapped, headfirst. They realize it and move up their ass. They can't hide the fact that their services are bullshit.

The tendency to overemphasize detailed information about the enemy at the expense of the political, economic, and cultural environment that supports it becomes even more pronounced at the brigade and Regional Command levels.

The most salient problems are attitudinal, cultural, and human. The intelligence community's standard mode of operation is surprisingly passive about aggregating information that is not enemy-related and relaying it to decision-makers or fellow analysts further up the chain. It is a culture that is strangely oblivious of how little its analytical products, as they now exist, actually influence commanders. The same thing could have been written, and was in fact written, during the Vietnam War.

Forward, Jan. 01, 2010, <pdf> 3p.

The numbers speak for themselves: There are now 16 Holocaust museums in the United States, from Albuquerque, N.M., to Houston, to Richmond, Va. And these are just the biggest of nearly 150 Holocaust centers all over the country. With a substantial, federally-backed national museum in Washington, critics are increasingly wondering about the need for so many local museums. Even more important, the question of whether these institutions will be able to financially sustain themselves into the future - given the heavy costs of maintaining collections, and the dying off of the Holocaust survivors who founded them - is of great concern to museum directors.

It's not just people in the Middle East who have good reason for hating what the US government does. The United States has created huge numbers of potential terrorists all over Latin America during a half-century of American actions far worse than those perpetrated in the Middle East. If Latin Americans shared the belief of many Muslims that they will go directly to paradise for martyring themselves by killing the Great Satan, by now we might have had decades of repeated terrorist horror coming from south of the US-Mexican border. As it is, over the years the region has produced numerous attacks on American embassies, diplomats, US Information Agency offices, and the like. There are also the people of Asia and Africa. Much the same thing applies.

The conduct of detention and interrogation activities presented new challenges for CIA. These included determining where detention and interrogation facilities could be securely located and operated, and identifying and preparing qualified personnel to manage and carry out detention and interrogation activities. With the knowledge that Al-Qa'ida personnel had been trained in the use of resistance techniques, another challenge was to identify interrogation techniques that Agency personnel could lawfully use to overcome the resistance. In this context, CTC, with the assistance of the Office of Technical Service (OTS), proposed certain more coercive physical techniques to use on Abu Zubaydah.

Frankly I could not make out his rather "Catch 22" argument, for the professor said "the result of genocide itself is proof". His seems to be offering the same bottomline as Norman Finkelstein's: first we accept an unproven premise that despite the absense of bodily remains (since no geological excavation or autopsy reports are sought) or scientific evidence for the mass murder weapon (and its technical properties), we are to presume as the law calls it the "manifest obviousness". About no other era of history is such a bottomline considered scientific. But I'd had my answer. There was no document even as we are told there are countless documents attesting to an indisputable proof.

Holocaust denial is an anti-Semitic conspiracy theory which claims that the well-documented destruction of six million Jews during World War II is actually a myth created by Jews to serve their own self-interested purposes. On college campuses, Holocaust denial is most often encountered in the form of advertisements submitted to student newspapers by Bradley Smith and his Committee for Open Debate on the Holocaust (CODOH). These ads are an affront to truth and an insult to the memory of those who were murdered by the Nazis. They create a divisive atmosphere for Jews on campus and foster conflict among students, faculty, administrators and the local community. [...] The Holocaust is a central tragedy in the sweep of Jewish and human history and a trauma that continues to inform Jewish life today. It is also a cautionary tale about human character that deserves retelling in every generation, to Jews and non-Jews alike. By fighting Holocaust denial on campuses we honor the memory of the victims, confront the forces of hatred, and help shape a responsible new generation of Americans. We urge you to join us in this effort. Authored by FOXMAN, the he-fox.

The world consumes some 3,700 tons of illicit opium per year (1/3 raw and 2/3 processed into heroin) and seizes 1,000 tons. Illicit opiate trade flows have never been previously known: this report breaks new ground by estimating them by country (and regions). Every year, the equivalent of some 3,500 tons of opium flow from Afghanistan to the rest of the world, via its immediate neighbours. The main opiate consumer market is Europe (about 19 per cent of global consumption, with a market value of US$ 20 billion), the Russian Federation (15 per cent), ... and the Americas (6 per cent).

Afghan opium is five time more productive than the Golden Triangle one. The large scle cultivation has been triggered by American invasion and occupation. (Remember the Vietnam era book by Alfred McCoy, The Politics of Heroin in SEA. It is available on the net :

<http://www.drugtext.org/library/books/McCoy/default.htm>) The Taliban had made strenuous efforts to decrease and eliminate poppy cultivation. But the need of the resistrance war has triggered an enormous increase of production. This report gives many so far unknown datas, even if it does not telle the complete story.

How to talk those Americans who are not yet slaves of Zionism into becoming one. This propaganda schoolbook encompasses all the main Israeli lies. A frightening candor.

The goal of pro-Israel communications is not simply to make people who already love Israel feel good about that decision. The goal is to win new hearts and minds for Israel without losing the support Israel already has. To do this you have to understand that the frame from which most Americans view Israel is one of "cycle of violence that has been going on for thousands of years." Thus, you have to disarm them from their suspicions before they will be open to learning new facts about Israel. The first step to winning trust and friends for Israel is showing that you care about peace for BOTH Israelis and Palestinians and, in particular, a better future for every child. Indeed, the sequence of your conversation is critical and you must start with empathy for BOTH sides first. Open your conversation with strong proven messages such as: "Israel is committed to a better future for everyone Israelis and Palestinians alike."

Canada celebrates ! In the local juridical parlance, we get this:

« I have determined that Mr. Lemire contravened s. 13 of the Act in only one of the instances alleged by Mr. Warman, namely the AIDS Secrets article. However, I have also concluded that s. 13(1) in conjunction with ss. 54(1) and (1.1) are inconsistent with s. 2(b) of the Charter, which guarantees the freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression. The restriction imposed by these provisions is not a reasonable limit within the meaning of s. 1 of the Charter. Since a formal declaration of invalidity is not a remedy available to the Tribunal (see Cuddy Chicks Ltd. V. Ontario (Labour Relations Board), [1991] 2 S.C.R. 5), I will simply refuse to apply these provisions for the purposes of the complaint against Mr. Lemire and I will not issue any remedial order against him. »

The Jew is fundamentally and basically criminal. Crime is, for him, the form of existence inherent in him. He is continuously and inescapably on the attack against the natural laws of order of the Volksgemeinschaft [= ethnic community] and the communal life of the various peoples. It is by no means money per se for which he strives. This view is a dangerous prejudice, which is apt to divert the gaze of the investigator and the politician from the essence. Money is for the Jew only a means to an end, the end goal is, for him, always the conquest of power, the usurpation of unlimited power over people. The entire content of the so-called 'religion' of Judaism and its Chosen status is a mere monstrosity of its morbid greed for power.

A case of US cowardice and abject submission

United States Technical Research Ship Liberty sailed from Norfolk May 2, 1967, on a routine patrol of the African coast. Five weeks later she was suddenly and overwhelmingly attacked in international waters by the air and naval forces of Israel. Her decks were strafed with machine-gun fire and scorched by napalm; she was crippled by rocket and torpedo damage; her life-rafts, readied for survivors, were machine-gunned in the water. Thirty-four of her crew died; scores of others were seriously wounded.

Even before the wounded were evacuated, a news lid went down over the entire episode. This story was not to be told. The Navy's own failures were never exposed or acknowledged, and Israel's fragile alibi was nurtured and protected. Israel claimed that the ship was at fault for being near the coast, for "trying to escape" after being fired upon by jets, and for not informing the Israeli government of her location; and our government tolerantly kept those assertions from public knowledge.

Long-standing Israeli plans for Jerusalem, now being implemented at an accelerated rate, are undermining prospects for a Palestinian capital in East Jerusalem and a sustainable twostate solution. Although Israel has legitimate security concerns in Jerusalem, many of its current illegal actions in and around the city have limited security justifications. Israeli "facts on the ground" including new settlements, construction of the barrier, discriminatory housing policies, house demolitions, restrictive permit regime and continued closure of Palestinians institutions increase Jewish Israeli presence in East Jerusalem, weaken the Palestinian community in the city, impede Palestinian urban development and separate East Jerusalem from the rest of the West Bank. Israel is, by practical means, actively pursuing the illegal annexation of East Jerusalem.

Based on these estimates the study addresses the possibility of an Israeli strike against the Iranian nuclear facilities, with the objective of either destroying the program or delaying it for some years. The success of the Strike Mission will be measured by how much of the Enrichment program it has destroyed, or the number of years it has delayed Iranian acquisition of enough Uranium, or Plutonium produced from the Arak reactor, to build a nuclear bomb. [...]

·The Israeli time frame as to when Iran will have a Nuclear Weapon is between 2009 and 2012, whereas the U.S. time frame is after 2013. Israel states that Iran should not be allowed to obtain any nuclear capabilities that could eventually allow it to produce nuclear weapons. Israel views Iran as an Existential Threat and must be dealt with in the immediate future.

· New US policy, under Obama Administration, is to leave all options on the table, and presently favors diplomacy against any military strikes. Containment could be the future course of U.S. Policy if Diplomatic Engagement does not work, and after all other options have been exhausted.

Culture Wars, 22 May 2009, <pdf>, 14 p. 150K

A very good analysis.

As the volume of the outcry increased, Vatican resolve began to crumble, and comment began to proliferate, making a bad situation worse. As if to show that Rome could shoot itself in the foot without the help of the Washington Post, L'Osservatore Romano published an article by Anna Foa, a Jewish professor of history at the University of Rome "La Sapienza," on the topic of "Negazionismo," the Italian term for Holocaust denial. Foa's article, "Antisemitism is the only motive of the Deniers," was so apodictic it made papal bulls look like models of empirical induction by comparison. In contrast to the measured approach of

Raul Hilberg, the Jewish dean of Holocaust studies, Foa, offering no evidence other than her ability as a mind reader, dismissed David Irving's credentials as an historian. She went on to claim that "Anti-Jewish hatred is at the origin of this denial... There is only one motive, one intention, behind denial of the Holocaust: antisemitism. All the rest is lies." The Nameless War

London, Britons, 1952. Many reprints. 106 p. <pdf> 600K

Inside the House of Commons, the pro-Jewish war mongers were now becoming more and more intransigent ; and more and more set on sabotaging the chances of turning the "phoney war" into a negotiated peace. This in spite of the fact that Britain had nothing to gain by further and total war, and everything to lose. The Jews, of course, had everything to lose by a peace which left the German gold-free money system and Jew-free Government intact, and nothing to gain.

It seemed clearer to me every day that this struggle over the question of civilian bombing was the crux of the whole matter ; and that by this method of warfare alone could the Jews and their allies cut the Gordian knot of stalemate leading to peace ; and probably later on to a joint attack on Jewish Bolshevism in Russia.

Accordingly, on 15th February, 1940, I put down the following question to the Prime Minister : Captain Ramsay asked the Prime Minister : "Whether he will assure the House that H.M. Government will not assent to the suggestions made to them, to abandon those principles which led them to denounce the bombing of civilian populations in Spain and elsewhere, and embark upon such a policy themselves ?"

Mr Chamberlain himself replied in outspoken terms :

"I am unaware of the suggestions to which my honourable and gallant friend refers."

On the 23rd May, 1940, within the first fortnight of Mr Churchill's Premiership, many hundreds of British subjects, a large proportion of them ex-Servicemen, were suddenly arrested and thrown into prison under Regulation 18B.

The Captain Ramsay, MP, was thrown into jail for the duration of the war... (23 May 1940 -- 26 Sept. 1944). He was never charged. « On the morning following my release from Brixton Prison, I proceeded to the House of Commons at my usual hour of 10.15 a.m. ; an action which appeared to cause no little surprise. ».

Nuremberg or the Promised Land
<pdf>, 650 K, 85 p. Text of 1948. Translated into English specially for the AAARGH readers.

Revisionism began in France in 1948 with the publication of Nuremberg ou la terre promise [Nuremberg or the Promised Land] by the Fascist writer Maurice Bardèche. Like its title, the book falls into two parts: the first is a critique of the Nuremberg Trial (especially of the conduct of the French delegation there), the second is an amazingly accurate prophecy of the bleak future that awaits the Occident. Bardèche deserves to be recognized not only as the world's first revisionist (revisionists however have been reluctant to accord him this honor)* but also as the first prophet of the New World Order. Bardèche understood that what was condemned at Nuremberg was not just National Socialism but Nationalism itself. He predicted nearly all the problems which plague the Occident today: globalism, third world immigration, hate crimes, affirmative action, racial miscegenation and replacement, etc. * "He was also the first to argue that the gas chambers were used for disinfection-not annihilation. . . . Despite his contentions that the Holocaust was a myth and that the Nazis were wrongly implicated, Bardeche has never been openly embraced by contemporary deniers. That has not kept them from adopting his ideas. Though they use his arguments, they rarely mention him by name because of his political views" (Carlo Mattogno).

Nazi-Zionist Collaboration

Glasgow, 1981 <pdf> 103 p., 800 K

The organisation opposes international Zionism in all its manifestations as racialist ideology, especially the Zionist state entity. The organisation particularly opposes Zionism in Britain. The organisation campaigns for a Unitary, Democratic, Secular State in all of Palestine with equal obligations and rights for all its citizens irrespective of their racial origin and religious beliefs, as proposed by the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO). The organisation supports the struggle of the Palestinian People and all progressive forces for the attainment of this objective. The organisation supports the struggle of the Palestinian People as part of the world National Liberation Movement against Zionism and Imperialism for its right to self-determination in its entire homeland and believes that the exercise of this right is the only correct step towards the creation of the Unitary, Democratic, Secular State in all of Palestine.

As for the disgraceful Zionist attempts to utilize the tragedy of the Holocaust to boost the political prestige of 'Israel', we merely restricted ourselves to noting that Nazism was a European phenomenon and that the Palestinian Arabs, having no complicity in the murder of European Jewry, should not have been penalized by having their homeland occupied by European colonial settlers. In a word, if a Zionist State was to be established (which as an anti-racist group we disagree with in principle), then it should have been established on the European lands of the Nazi exterminators, and not on Palestinian lands.* The opportunist attempts to exploit the tragedy of the Holocaust in the service of Zionist 'Israel' by promoting the film series of the same name was the breaking point with BAZO-PS.

This book spreads panic among the Zionists and settles their account

<In his brilliant expose Beit Zvi shows how Zionist leadership of the time together with Bund28 and Agudat Israel,29 failed to do their elementary duty of trying to inform the Jews of Europe. He also shows how in 1941-42 the Hebrew press of Palestine consistently ignored the reports from the Soviet and Polish governments, and then from other sources, that European Jews were being exterminated. And whenever the Hebrew press of Palestine couldn't ignore such news entirely, it did its best to belittle them, occasionally to the point of quoting the official Nazi denials.30 I shall never forget that the Zionist Movement's leadership was then silent and guided others to silence. And those Holocaust historians who now exonerate that leadership are even more reprehensible.

In my view Beit Zvi was right in concluding that the leadership of the Zionist Movement wanted the Jews not to be rescued unless they would immigrate to Palestine.»

Killing Hope -- U.S. Military and CIA Interventions Since World War II

Updated Through 2003. <pdf> 260 p., 6,3 M

Is the United States a force for democracy? In this classic and unique volume that answers this question, William Blum serves up a forensic overview of U.S. foreign policy spanning sixty years. Remarks from the previous edition: "Far and away the best book on the topic."-Noam Chomsky "A valuable reference for anyone interested in the conduct of U.S. foreign policy."- Choice "I enjoyed it immensely."-Gore Vidal [...] For those who want the details on our most famous actions (Chile, Cuba, Vietnam, to name a few), and for those who want to learn about our lesser-known efforts (France, China, Bolivia, Brazil, for example), this book provides a window on what our foreign policy goals really are.

From Common Courage Press comes another astonishing book that indicts powerful interests. This is William Blum's "Killing Hope: US Military and CIA Interventions Since World War II" (1995). It is an exhaustive, well-organized inspection of more than fifty five foreign interventions conducted by the US this century. In this fact-filled tome, Blum documents America's hidden, quasi-fascist agenda since defeating Hitler. In short, the Cold War was largely a fiction from the western media. Our mainstream press (read: Sunpapers) have been and still are perpetuating a lie--that the US was not the aggressor in its conflicts against "communism". This myth has immiserated tens of thousands of innocent people across almost every country on the globe. Killing Hope contains much incriminating information that somehow never made it to our history textbooks.

This monograph-Holocaust Denial's Assault on Memory-was initially inspired by the campaign of Iran's president Mahmoud Ahmadinejad to deny history's most documented crime: Nazi Germany's genocidal "Final Solution" against Europe's Jews that left 6 million dead, included a generation of children. Indeed, the Simon Wiesenthal Center is translating this work into Arabic, Farsi, and, hopefully, Indonesian and Urdu. We dare not allow the bigots to be the sole source of information about the Holocaust for young people in the Arab and Muslim worlds.

The Zentrum laughing stock.

"The Holocaust Deniers are not a bunch of social misfits, but part of an increasingly sophisticated and interconnected international movement whose 'assault on truth and memory' is the 'cutting edge' of antisemitism old and new, with all the attendant harm that such racist incitement connotes. For the danger of this international hate movement does not lie only in its assaultive speech denying the Holocaust . . . rather, it resides first in the imputation of this 'hoax' to the Jews . . . ; and second, it resides, in its whitewashing of the worst crimes and criminals in history. In effect, the Holocaust Denial Movement can be seen as an international criminal conspiracy. . . ."

BUTZ Arthur R.

The Hoax of the Twentieth Century (542 p. <pdf> - 8 M. New version)

20th Anniversary Edition. This pathbreaking study remains unsurpassed as the most comprehensive one-volume scholarly refutation of the Holocaust extermination story. With an engineer's eye for technical detail and a mature scholar's mastery of the sources, the Northwestern University professor ranges from Auschwitz to Zyklon in debunking the gas chamber and the Six Million stories. In more than 350 pages of penetrating analysis and lucid commentary, Dr. Butz gives a graduate course on the fate of Europe's Jews during the Second World War. He scrupulously separates the cold facts from the tonnage of stereotyped myth and propaganda that has served as a formidable barrier to the truth for more than half a century. Chapter by solidly referenced chapter, Butz applies the scholar's rigorous technique to every major aspect of the Six Million legend, carefully explaining his startling conclusion that "the Jews of Europe were not exterminated and there was no German attempt to exterminate them." Focusing on the postwar "war crimes trials," where the prosecution's evidence was falsified and secured by coercion and even torture, Butz re-examines the very German records so long misrepresented. He re-evaluates the concept and technical feasibility of the legendary extermination gas chambers. Reviewing the demographic statistics, which do not allow for the loss of six million European Jews, he concludes that perhaps a million may have perished in the turmoil of deportation, internment and war. Maligned by people who have made no effort to read it, bitterly denounced by those unable to refute its thesis, The Hoax of the Twentieth Century has sent shock waves through the academic and political world. So threatening has it been to Zionist interests and the international Holocaust lobby that its open sale has been banned in several countries, including Israel and Germany. In the new foreword and four important supplements included in this edition, the author reports on key aspects of the still unfolding global Holocaust controversy. A classic, this semi-underground best seller remains the most widely read revisionist work on the subject: must reading for anyone who wants a clear picture of the scope and magnitude of the historical cover-up of the age.

CÉLINE Louis-Ferdinand

Trifles for a Massacre

The first English translation of the highly controversial Bagatelles pour un massacre !

268 p. Anonymous translation, <pdf> 1,7 M

«For U. S. readers, Louis-Ferdinand Céline's Journey to the End of the Night made strong reading, even in its greatly expurgated translation. But that violent and gory novel is a model of Puritan self-restraint compared with Céline's new, untranslated and probably untranslatable Trifles for a Massacre, current sensation of French literature, in which the novelist's genius for invective, hatred of modern civilization and fertility in cursing it have exploded in an anti-Semitic tirade calculated to end all anti-Semitic tirades, to make Nazis turn green with envy.

What made M. Céline an anti-Semite is explained with Gallic candor in the first 40 pages of Trifles for a Massacre. It appears that at 43, a successful novelist, War hero and practicing physician, Céline suddenly felt a great liking for dancing girls. To get acquainted with these attractive creatures he composed a ballet, filled with dancing shepherds, pure emotions, sweetness & light, and consequently much different from his usual pessimistic and obscene prose. It was rejected. Jewish musicians, actors and production managers, he decided, wanted the girls themselves. For the next 337 pages of Trifles for a Massacre he pours forth his wrath in a prose style of the highest order, bold and original imagery, and Rabelaisian curses no one of which could be printed in the U. S. Hitler and Goebbels are too shy and inhibited to satisfy him; to their usual charges that the Jews control the Communist International and the democratic countries, he adds the unkindest cut of all, says they probably control the fascist countries too. They organize wars, revolutions, panics, famines, inflation and deflation. Growing more lyrical, Céline damns as Jewish, Cézanne, Charles Chaplin, Lenin, Madame Curie, Racine, Montaigne, William Faulkner, Stendhal, Zola, the Vatican, the French general staff, the Catholic clergy, critics, propagandists, politicians, movie producers and the people who rejected his ballet. When Trifles for a Massacre was published, horrified Left critics who had praised Céline's Journey to the End of the Night damned him as a Fascist. Dissenting, Novelist André Gide declared the book should be taken as a joke, although a dangerous one, being virtually a satire on the absurdity and vulgarity of genuine anti-Semitism. Bystanding critics found another explanation in the detachment of modern French literature from French life, the tendency of writers like Céline to regard writing as a disinterested mental game, to be played without thought of the social values implicit in their work. In Manhattan last week, big, broad-shouldered, nervous Celine partly confirmed their view, described Trifles' for a Massacre as an "exercise." Admitting that he had written it in the hope of delaying preparation for war, he said it would not delay war a minute, would probably only bring it on a little sooner.»

From the May 30, 1938 issue of TIME magazine

The "Holocaust" religion feeds the Jews' and their henchmen's spirit of lucre, of conquest, of crusade. It has become the ferment of American-Israeli imperialism and colonialism: it is leading us to the abyss. An Attempt at a Literary Analysis of the Holocaust Gassing Claim

CODOH Website, 1999, 76 p. <pdf>

We've also heard chilling tales of sadistic Germans taking turns watching the death agonies of gassing victims through peepholes in the gas chamber doors. "Why else would they be there if not to satisfy these sick needs?" goes the unscholarly argument. Thanks to the research of Samuel Crowell, we now know that thousands of German bomb shelters were also required to have gas-resistant doors with a peephole for use of both the people inside and rescuers, to see what danger lies on the other side before opening the door. The ad to the right is for mass produced airtight doors and window shutters made to protect Germans from the devastating air bombardment and the possibility of gas attacks.

A COMMON BELIEF is that in World War Two the National Socialist government of Germany carried out a secret policy of mass exterminations, chiefly using extermination gas chambers. The policy is said to have been ordered by Adolf Hitler, and involved the gassing of millions of human beings, who subsequently were burned either in crematoria or in huge pits so that scarcely a trace of their bodies remained.

The claim of mass gas extermination has been questioned ever since the late 1940's, but only by a few people, and very much on the fringe of public discourse.² In the early 1970's several new critics of the gas extermination claim emerged, and over the past two decades they have been joined by many others, so that now there are at least several dozen who have written on the subject.³ These researchers consider themselves heir to the tradition of those historians who sought in the 1920's to revise, and de-politicize, our understanding of the First World War, and so consider themselves historical revisionists. While the Iraqi people struggle to define their future amid political chaos and violence, the fate of their most valuable economic asset, oil, is being decided behind closed doors. This report reveals how an oil policy with origins in the US State Department is on course to be adopted in Iraq, soon after the December elections, with no public debate and at enormous potential cost. The policy allocates the majority of Iraq's oilfields accounting for at least 64% of the country's oil reserves for development by multinational oil companies.

Iraqi public opinion is strongly opposed to handing control over oil development to foreign companies. But with the active involvement of the US and British governments a group of powerful Iraqi politicians and technocrats is pushing for a system of long term contracts with foreign oil companies which will be beyond the reach of Iraqi courts, public scrutiny or democratic control.

In the course of this account there is some indirect mention of the causes of discord in the Russian-Jewish relationship that can neither be denied nor ignored. This discord, or mutual distrust, and the subsequent repulsion of both parties by each other, began with the first appearance of the Jews in Russia. All three major branches of the Russian people, the Great Russians, the Malorussian-Ukrainians and the Byelorussians are implicated in this "Judaophobia", but not without cause. This discord in its broadest sense existed not only between the Russians and the Jewish ethnic group but also between the entire population of the USSR and the Jews, throughout the country.

She then turned her attention on the swarming world of Jewish organizations and, sure enough, she hit the B'nai Brith'. (The Octopus, published in 1940 under the pen name of F. W. Johnson). She then deepened her interest in researching the Jewish beliefs. After several editions, under various titles, she achieved the text we are presenting here, and which is pitiless.

In order to be able to write and publish this book, Giladi, an Iraqi Jew settled in Israel, had to renounce his citizenship and settle in the US. The book is literally explosive: he explains, with the support of evidence, that Israeli authorities condoned grenade attacks against the Jews and the synagogues of Baghdad, to herd the Jews and push them to emigrate in Israel, in the early 50's. It was known, but rather vaguely. Here are ALL the available files of this black file. It shows that Zionists never hesitate to commit massacres on everyone, including Jews, when they see fit. The difficulties encountered by the author are then easy to understand but Giladi's strong dedication to truth overcame them. This is the first publication on Internet.

For the tragic role that Adolf Hitler had in the history of the twentieth century, the Berlin bunker, where he committed suicide on 30 April 1945, is certainly among the sites with historic value and its preservation is not only a German question but of the whole humanity. This bunker is buried, since more than half a century, in a place of the city of Berlin and its location is unknown. Before the Soviet troops, later the Germans of DDR and now the politicians of the unified Germany have been afraid that these rests could become object of nostalgic demonstrations. In the meanwhile, however, they buried, concealed and "preserved" the bunker, not building on it any complex of edifices. During the last years I have studied all the available literature regarding the bunker, examined documents in the German Federal Archives, identified and contacted the firm which built the bunker in 1944, made checks and surveys "in loco". The result has been the individualization of the site where the bunker is buried. The book runs through the vicissitudes of the last days of bunker up to the end of its protagonists and reconstructs its history from the Soviet troops occupation to its (false) destroying, from the casual discoveries of its rests to the subsequent concealments, from the errors of identification to the false journalistic "scoop" and finally to the mystifications through the carrying out of feigned locations. The book presents, moreover, the correspondence with the Berlin Authorities and that one with UNESCO, based on my request of insert the Hitler bunker in the list of monuments "World Heritage".

The Armenian File The Myth of Innocence Exposed

<pdf> 327 p. Published in Istanbul in 1983 by the Turkish Historical Society

The author was a diplomat. His work is methodical and sound. He dismantles piece by piece the odd constructions presented by the Armenian nationalists, eager to cut Turkey into pieces.

When the Russian Army had begun its great offensive against us in 1915, the Armenian Tashnak Committee, which was at the service of the Czarist regime, drove the Armenian community, which was behind our military units, to rebellion. Because we were forced to retreat, in face of the superiority in numbers and equipment of the enemy, we considered ourselves constantly as being between two fires. Our convoys of supply and wounded were massacred without mercy, the bridges and roads behind us were destroyed, and in the Turkish villages terror reigned.

The bands who committed these murders, and who took all the Armenians capable of bearing arms into their ranks, took advantage of the immunities given to them since peace time, though the capitulations, by some great powers, and they made all their transfers of arms, ammunition, and supplies, of which they had been successful in collecting large stocks, through the Armenian villages. World public opinion, which was quite indifferent to the treatment of Ireland by Great Britain during peace time, and away from the war area, cannot make a justifiable accusation against us concerning the decision we were obliged to take regarding the relocation of the Armenian community.

Did Six Million Really Die ?

Truth at Last Exposed

1974, <pdf> 41 p., 500 K

<Of course, atrocity propaganda is nothing new. It has accompanied every conflict of the 20th century and doubtless will continue to do so. During the First World War, the Germans were actually accused of eating Belgian babies, as well as delighting to throw them in the air and transfix them on bayonets. The British also alleged that the German forces were operating a "Corpse Factory," in which they boiled down the bodies of their own dead in order to obtain glycerine and other commodities, a calculated insult to the honour of an Imperial army. After the war, however, came the retractions; indeed, a public statement was made by the Foreign Secretary in the House of Commons apologising for the insults to German honour, which were admitted to be war-time propaganda.

<No such statements have been made after the Second World War. In fact, rather than diminish with the passage of years, the atrocities propaganda concerning the German occupation, and in particular their treatment of the Jews, has done nothing but increase its virulence, and elaborate its catalogue of horrors. Gruesome paperback books with lurid covers continue to roll from the presses, adding continuously to a growing mythology of the concentration camps and especially to the story that no less than Six Million Jews were exterminated in them. The ensuing pages will reveal this claim to be the most colossal piece of fiction and the most successful of deceptions; but here an attempt may be made to answer an important question: What has rendered the atrocity stories of the Second World War so uniquely different from those of the First? Why were the latter retracted while the former are reiterated louder than ever? Is it possible that the story of the Six Million Jews is serving a political purpose, even that it is a form of political blackmail?>

"At the topmost level, a virtual ban on public discussion of Political Zionism proves the paramountcy of its sway in American affairs. As in England, the open expression of doubt about this territorial ambition, and support for it, has been almost driven underground in recent years. An imperial thrall has been laid on America in this matter. Traditional Americans, whose forebears detested laws of lese-majesty and the genuflections of courts, now find their leaders performing an even humbler obeisance in this direction; like foremost politicians in England, they thus emulate those Rumanian nobles who long bowed to the Sultan's rule, vainly hoping to keep rank and possessions. The Soviet ban on 'anti-Semitism' (which was in effect a veto on public discussion of the origins of Communism) has in practice been extended to the British island and the American Republic in the matter of Political Zionism. It is lese-majesty in a new form and because of it present-day Americans and Englishmen do not as a rule see the grave future courses and penalties to which support of Political Zionism has committed them."

HECHT Ben

I consider Perfidy to be the best, most honest, heart-wrenching story written about any subject. Specifically, it happens to be about not-widely publicized facts about "Zionist leaders" of the Ben-Gurion era, their very slimy connections to Nazi collaborators-and a despicable record in saving the Jews of Europe (For anyone who disregards this : Israel's "Zionist leaders" are also taken apart in Tom Segev's, The Seventh Million). Hecht prophetically states in his opening sentence : "In my own time, governments have taken the place of people. They have also taken the place of God. Governments speak for people, dream for them, and determine, absurdly, their lives and deaths." (Jaywilton)

Dr. Rudolf Kastner was a Jewish Agency official during WWII who was sent to Hungary to save Hungarian Jews from the holocaust. The top Nazi brass, Eichmann, Krumei, Becher, Wisliczeny, sized him up, and realized that his selfish desire for influence and power could be exploited. To prevent a recurrence of the Warsaw ghetto rebellion, which lasted for 27 days and took enormous German manpower to crush, the Jew-killers needed an "insider" who would deceive the hundreds of thousands of Hungarian Jews into acquiescence. In return for collaborating with the Nazis, Kastner was offered to select about 300 prominent Hungarian Jews to be saved from extermination in Auschwitz.

Kastner agreed. Not only did he deceive the Hungarian Jews, who trusted him blindly because of his credentials as THE top Zionist in Hungary, but he was also responsible to the death of Hanna Senesh, a legendary Israeli parachutist who was sent to Hungary to spy for the British.

During his trial, Kastner lied multiple times under oath. The process of cross-examination painted a picture of a tormented, schizophrenic Kastner, who actually believes he did no wrong. The entire Bolshevik ruling clique of Israel at the time defended him from the charges of collaboration with the Nazis, because in this trial, they, the ruling clique, were implicated as well. Just like American Jewry during WWII, the Zionist leaders in Israel kept quiet about the extermination of Jews by the Nazi Germans. Both were responsible in great measure for the extent of the genocide---if they did something, it would have been much less than six million. But American Jewry didn't want to be regarded as trouble-makers, and the ruling clique in Israel was the loyal puppy of the British.

The presiding judge ruled against Kastner, and in his opinion implicated the entire government of Israel. This decision had tremendous consequences for Israeli society in the years to come. (Concerned Kafir)

Ben Hecht wrote this book in 1961. In the last 15 years, many historical studies have corroborated Hecht's findings: Ben Gurion and his socialist cronies, as well as most of the Jewish leaders in the U.S., did almost nothing to save the Jews of Europe in 1933 - 45; in many cases, they hindered efforts of rescue. Perfidy describes the shameful Kasztner affair where close to a million Hungarian Jews might have been saved but were betrayed in 1944. A similar pattern, however, occurred throughout the Holocaust: The Jewish socialists in pre Israel Palestine bowed to the British who did not want any Jewish refugees in Palestine which would have offended the Arabs. The American Jewish leaders considered FDR as God. FDR, and his administration, did not want to help the Jews so everybody kept quiet and did nothing, including the Russians. The only ones who fought this conspiracy of silence were the Irgun members. Hecht dramatizes all these historical facts very well. (Esar Shvartz) All on Amazon.

<pdf> Notes, glossary, bibliography, index, 135 p. 650K, 2000, Independent History and Research Company, Coeur d'Alène, Idaho

In this scholarly and deeply considered work, the author documents his provocative thesis that Judaism is not the religion of the Old Testament, but the newly formalized belief system of the Pharisees, which arose in Babylon with commitment of the formerly oral "tradition of the elders" to writing, in the wake of the crucifixion of Israel's Messiah and the destruction of the Temple. Basing his findings on authoritative Judaic sources, Hoffman demonstrates that Judaism is a man-made religion of tradition and superstition, which represents the institutionalized nullification of Biblical law and doctrine.

Szymon Wizenthal, of whom you believe that he "miraculously" survived twelve or thirteen concentration camps, was spared harassment during the time of the great persecution of the Jews, during the so-called "Holocaust", from spring 1942 until summer 1944. His personal files shows that the Reich's Employment Office, knowing of Wizenthal's Jewish ethnicity, assigned him a job with the German State Railway, as German wage-earner - a fact which work-shy Wizenthal cannot forgive or forget to this day. His German superiors during that time were two men by the names of Günthert and Kohlrautz. Immediately after the war he tried to denounce them by means of perjured testimony; today he describes them as his saviors, and according to his current account they "strictly" ensured his "fair treatment". So while Jewish families were torn apart when members of either sex who were able to work were interned in concentration camps, the figurehead of the "Holocaust" collected his Reichsmark from the Reich German payroll, Friday after Friday. His lady wife also found employment in the same office. (Preface)

David Leslie Hoggan (March 23, 1923August 7, 1988) was an American historian whose work was the subject of much controversy. At Harvard, Hoggan was awarded a PhD for a dissertation on relations between Germany and Poland in the years 1938-1939 in 1948. During his time at Harvard, Hoggan befriended Harry Elmer Barnes, whose thinking would have much influence on Hoggan. In 1955, Barnes encouraged Hoggan to turn his dissertation into a book, which was published in West Germany as Der Erzwungene Krieg (The Forced War), a book which blamed the outbreak of World War II due to an alleged Anglo-Polish conspiracy to wage aggression against Germany. Hoggan charged the alleged conspiracy was headed by the British Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax, who, Hoggan contended, had seized control of British foreign policy in October 1938 from Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain who was allegedly assisted by Polish Foreign Minister Colonel Józef Beck in what Hoggan called a monstrous anti-German plot.

In 1969 a short book was published called The Myth of the Six Million, denying the Holocaust. The book listed no author, but the work was by Hoggan, though published without his permission. This should not be confused with his earlier book of 1965 called The Myth of the 'New History', on America's wars. The Myth of the Six Million was published by the Noontide Press, a small Los Angeles-based publisher specializing in anti-Semitic literature owed and operated by Willis Carto. The Myth of the Six Million was one of the first books, if not the first book in the English language to deny the Holocaust.

This book is vintage Irving, bearing all the familiar hallmarks of the British historian's skilled treatment of World War II: original research based on primary sources, vivid writing, and consideration for the German point of view, all with a defiant thumb to the nose to "court historians" and their "politically correct" adherents.

As he has amply demonstrated in his 30 published works of history, Irving is a master of excavating nuggets of historical gold from neglected archive files and ignored private diaries and letters. Because of his reputation as a scrupulous chronicler, numerous survivors of the Second World War era who are mistrustful (often with good reason) of establishment historians have, over the decades, entrusted him with their private papers.

In writing this "intimate look at the origins and conduct" of the 1945-1946 International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg, Irving has relied heavily on many hitherto neglected papers and documents, above all the official and private papers of Robert H. Jackson, a US Supreme Court Justice who served as the chief American prosecutor. Throughout this book, Irving shows considerable sympathy for Jackson, whom he portrays as an essentially decent man caught up in a tragic drama. "If this story needs a hero," writes Irving, "then he is Jackson." (Daniel W. Michaels)

Moscow, tr. from Russian, Progress Publishers, 1970. Introduction by Jim Salean & Alec Saunder (Australia, 2006) <pdf>, 150 p., 700K

CAUTION: ZIONISM! by Soviet Marxist historian Yuri Ivanov is a convincing exposé of modern Zionism as an ideology, a system of organisations and the practical policies of the wealthy Jewish bourgeoisie. Basing his arguments on numerous documents and facts, the author shows that Zionism has been and is a bellicose reactionary force working against the genuine national interests of all people, the Israeli people inclusive.

Meir Vilner, Secretary of the Political Bureau of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Israel, wrote in a letter to Soviet journalists in January 1968: "Zionism is, alas, a 'forgotten' question but nonetheless a most actual one. . . ." How right he is! For a long time many champions of Zionism were sparing no efforts to make Zionism appear nothing more than an obsolete term. It would be rash to think of it as being purely by chance that what is in effect a bellicose reactionary force should have managed until recently to avoid world public attention. This was without doubt one of the main factors on which the existence of an international corporation of Zionists operating in the interests of imperialist reaction depended.

At the time when the World Zionist Organisation (WZO) was being formed, Lenin with his habitual foresight noted on more than one occasion that Zionism was a reactionary trend of the Jewish bourgeoisie.

JOYCE William [Lord Haw-Haw]

Twilight over England

Berlin, 1940, <pdf> 108 p. 0,8M

William Joyce was a British National Socialist who took refuge in Germany during World War II. While there Joyce worked for the Nazis by broadcasting propaganda to the British public on German Radio. Although it was illegal to listen to his broadcasts, they became enormously popular, and Joyce himself acquired the sarcastic name Lord Haw-Haw. After the war he was arrested for treason and hanged in 1946. Twilight over England was published in Berlin in 1940. In its preface Joyce recounts his own personal story; in the rest he provides a brief history of England for the purpose of explaining the causes of WW2. Joyce describes how the Jews gained control over British finance, industry and government, how they used that control for their own betterment and to the detriment of the British people, and how they used it ultimately to start WWII. His book, however, is not just an attack on the Jews. It is perhaps the best defense of National Socialism written originally in English and a devastating critique of modern democracy.

< At any rate, I have reason to believe that many fictitious stories are being circulated about me in England already: and it seems less than fair to neglect to provide them with that basis of fact which every skilful liar welcomes. I have no wish to write a brief autobiography: it merely seems necessary to give a few details which, in conjunction with the argument of the book, will explain why I came to Germany at the end of August 1939 to play what humble part I could in working for her victory in the war which I knew to be inevitable. >

"Since the end of the war about 3,000,000 people, mostly women and children and overaged men, have been killed in eastern Germany and south-eastern Europe; about 15,000,000 people have been deported or had to flee from their homesteads and are on the road. About 25 per cent of these people, over 3,000,000, have perished. About 4,000,000 men and women have been deported to eastern Europe and Russia as slaves. ... It seems that the elimination of the German population of eastern Europe - at least 15,000,000 people - was planned in accordance with decisions made at Yalta. Churchill had said to Mikolajczyk when the latter protested during the negotiations at Moscow against forcing Poland to incorporate eastern Germany: 'Don't mind the five or more million Germans. Stalin will see to them. You will have not trouble with them: they will cease to exist.'" [Review of World Affairs, quoted by Sen. Homer Capehart in speech before US Senate, Feb. 5, 1946.]

"Did Six Million Really Die ?" Report of the Evidence in the Canadian "False News" Trial of Ernst Zündel, 1988.

Compiled and edited by Barbara Kulaszka. Foreword by Dr. Robert Faurisson. Toronto: Samisdat, 1992. (pdf - 5,7 M) 941 p.

This massive book is an admirable and valuable summary of evidence presented by historians with opposing views on the "Holocaust" in a major trial in which the usual rules of evidence generally prevailed (quite in contrast to the uremberg trials of 1945-1946). Furthermore, this book supplements the copious evidence with developments on the "Holocaust" question between 1988 and 1992, such as the 1990 report of Poland's Institute of Forensic Research commissioned by the Auschwitz State Museum. (The complete text of this report is published in the Summer 1991 IHR Journal.)

This book summarizes rather closely, with many direct quotations, the testimony presented by the various witnesses. The summary of the testimony for the Crown (prosecution) takes up 157 pages, that for the defense, 276. The summaries of the testimonies of the two major prosecution witnesses, Raul Hilberg and Christopher Browning, take up 148-1/2 pages, while the summaries of the testimonies of six major defense witnesses occupy 224 pages: Ditlieb Felderer 13, Mark Weber 63, Udo Walendy 13, Robert Faurisson 65, Fred euchter 8, David Irving 62. I give these figures to provide an idea of the book's dimensions and contents, because it is difficult to indicate much more than the general nature of the testimonies within the usual limits of a book review. LEESE Arnold

The Jewish War of Survival

Privately printed in the UK, 1945, 86 p.

This extraordinary booklet was written in 1945 while WW II was dwindling to its end. With an astonishing lucidity, Arnold Leese explains and demonstrate that this war was a Jewish war, fought by non-Jews for the survival and the benefit of the Jews. This has become the standard official view now, fifty years later: the constant rewriting of history by Judeolatrists reaches the same result. (pdf - 520 K).

Arnold Leese was the consummate gadfly on the back of the British establishment. Due to his insistence that Britain not engage in war with Germany, and thus save millions of lives as well as the British Empire, against the wishes of the Jews, he was imprisoned without charges or trial under Reg. 18b. One of the great hidden facts about WW II is that the "democratic" powers ("Allies") imprisoned people for political speech in a way little different from those of the "Axis" powers. So what's the difference? "Cui bono, cui bono . . ."

Gentile Folly: the Rothschilds

Booklet dated feb. 1940. <pdf> 68 p. 500K

I am not concerned with anecdotes about the Rothschilds, nor with registering their "wise-cracks," nor with their "charity." I take no interest in the Rothschilds as men or robots, but only as Jews; this book, which has been condensed so as to be within the reach of any working-man or woman, deals with the principal aspects of control over the Gentile by sheer weight of money-power, a control used for purposes not Gentile. Dealing, as it does, with the last 150 years which have been so full of world-shaking events, it has been no easy task to squeeze what I have to say within the compass of a one-shilling publication. To enable those who have either forgotten their history or (let us be honest) never learned it, to follow the narrative more easily, a calendar of some of the principal historical events of the period follows this preface, and I would advise the reader to have within reach, when reading the book, an ordinary school history-book for occasional reference.

Holocaust Revisionism and Rabbinic Revisionism :

The first lesson and challenge is that we must be committed to denying the Holocaust deniers whenever we are confronted with their Holocaust Revisionism. This is not only a valid means to the end of building bridges to our Jewish people, it is a valid end in -and - of itself : God calls us to confront lies and evil whenever and wherever we encounter it (cf. Eph. 5:1 -17ff.; etc.). For those of us who are messianic believers, we must stand up as the believing remnant of Israel, and, like Daniel and his three friends, etc., proclaim the truth to all those who would seek to destroy the Jewish people and thus violate the anti-Semitic clause of Genesis 12:3,38 And let us not forget, the best way to confront any Historical Revisionist is to confront him with the loving and saving good news of the Gospel of our Lord Yeshua. How else can we convert an enemy into a friend? A second lesson and challenge is that we must educate and train those within the Church to also confront the Holocaust Revisionists. If Gentile Christians are called to provoke the Jews to jealousy, as the Word of God mandates (Rom. 11:11- 14ff.), then they must be informed of the lies of the Holocaust Revisionists and trained to not only refute their sophistry, but also to stand with the Jewish people against this ideological travesty. What better way is there for Gentile Christians to move the Jews to jealousy for the God who has provided eternal life for all men.

The «Jewish-Nazi» Manifesto of Ariel Sharon

This document, presented here in English, French and Spanish, makes Zionists go crazy, with a good reason. A very high-ranking official of the Hebrew State spoke freely to a well-known Israeli writer, Amos Oz. It was published in Davar, without the name of the speaker. Obviously the key concepts are borrowed from the twin ideology of Zionism, i.e. Nazism. They share the same intellectual framework. The Jewish watchdogs did not object until someone said: "The king is naked !". Everybody knew in Israel that the speaker was Arik Sharon. But to avoid the embarrassment, they have now launched a campaign saying the text is "false", a fabrication like "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion". As a matter of fact, nothing is false. Oz is not a fabricator. What may be disputed is the authorship, but whoever knows Sharon, has read his autobiography, looking at his blood-dripping hands, can hardly entertain any doubt.

The History of Jewish Human Sacrifice

The Law of Human Sacrifice: For a long time the newspaper Der Sturmer endeavored to find the actual law of ritual murder, the law of human sacrifice. It finally succeeded in doing so. In a trial in which Julius Streicher and Karl Holz were being tried (because of "offending the Jewish Religious Society") it was proposed that they call as witness Dr. Erich Bischoff. Dr. Bischoff appeared. He was the leading German expert on the laws of the Talmud. He had dedicated his entire life to the study of the Jewish law books. Dr. Bischoff brought with him a translation of a secret Jewish law, which clarified with one stroke the question of ritual murder. It comes from the book of Sohar.[=Zohar] This book is considered to be holy by the Jews.

The knowledge of Jewish ritual murder is thousands of years old. It is as old as the Jews themselves. Non-Jews have passed the knowledge of it from generation to generation, and it has been passed down to us through writings. It is known throughout the nation. Knowledge of ritual murder can be found in even the most secluded rural villages. The grand-father told his grand children, who passed it on to his children, and his children's children, until we have inherited the knowledge today from them.

Chicago, Theses and Dissertations Press, <pdf> 145 p.

The morgue of the old crematorium in the Auschwitz concentration camp is said to have been the first location where mass gassings of Jews occurred over an extended period of time. In this study, Italian scholar Carlo Mattogno analyzes the most important witness testimonies and juxtaposes them with original German wartime documents as well as material evidence still available today. Mattogno shows that the witness testimonies are either extremely vague, or where they are specific, that they contradict each other and speak about physical impossibilities.

A few witnesses made more specific statements, which allow for their verification. Mattogno performs an analysis of these statements with the help of both original German wartime documents and material evidence. His analysis reveals that the claims of these witnesses are totally unfounded. Mattogno also exposes the fraudulent attempts of mainstream historians to convert the witnesses' black propaganda into "truth" by means of selective quotes, omissions, and distortions.

Finally, Mattogno shows with forensic methods by investigating the current state of this morgue as presented to tourists today that this crematory's morgue has never been anything different than what it was meant to be: a morgue.

In the spring and summer of 1944, the Auschwitz crematoria are said to have been unable to cope with the arrival of a mass of deportees coming from Hungary. Therefore, every single day, thousands of corpses are claimed to have been incinerated on huge pyres piled up in deep trenches. This study investigates all available documentary, physical and anecdotal evidence. The author shows that the witness statements contradict each other in every regard. They also contradict what was physically possible. The air photos finally show that there is no evidence at all.

Translated from Italian by Carlos W. Porter. Chicago, Theses and Dissertation Press, 2005 <pdf> 183 p. ill. 7M

After opening the Moscow archives to historians, the Central Construction Office of the Waffen-SS and Police Auschwitz - Zentralbauleitung der Waffen-SS und Polizei Auschwitz began to attract the attention of scholars, thanks above all to Jean-Claude Pressac. The Central Construction Office is commonly mentioned by historians and journalists, but we still know practically nothing about this extremely important agency, which was responsible for the planning and construction of the Auschwitz-Birkenau complex. Apart from the scanty information supplied by French historians, very little is known. The importance of a specific study on the Central Construction Office of the Waffen-SS and Police Auschwitz lies not only in the clarification of an aspect of the history of the camp, which is still wrapped in obscurity for the most part, but also in understanding the know-how of the organization and of the tasks of the Central Construction Office of Auschwitz. This enables a more profound understanding of documents. This in turn provides protection against facile interpretive errors of such documents, a frequent occurrence among Auschwitz historians. This study is based primarily on unpublished Moscow documents. It constitutes the first attempt to reconstruct the history of the Central Construction Office of Auschwitz. Although it is far from perfect, due precisely to its pioneering nature, it does delineate the structure, tasks, and essential activities of this office in an organic manner.

Concentration Camp Stutthof and its function in National Socialist Jewish Policy

The National Socialist concentration camp of Stutthof, not far from Danzig (West Prussia), has never been the subject of scientific study by western historians. In Poland there exists quite an extensive body of literature on the subject, which must, however, be treated with caution, because it is heavily influenced by Soviet-Communist and Polish-nationalistic ideology. According to this literature, Stutthof became a 'makeshift' extermination camp within the framework of the execution of the so-called 'Final Solution of the Jewish Question' in 1944.

Jürgen Graf and Carlo Mattogno have subjected this view of Stutthof to critical examination based on Polish literature and documents located in Russian, Polish, and Dutch archives, paying particular attention to mass transports to and from Stutthof in 1944. This research led the authors to very definite conclusions as to the function of the camp, differing dramatically from those expressed in the standard literature: not only do Graf and Mattogno prove that the Stutthof camp did not serve as a 'makeshift' extermination camp -- the room claimed to have been used as a homicidal gas chamber was never anything else but a delousing chamber. This book also sheds some light on the question of what happened to prisoners who were sent to Auschwitz but were never registered in that camp: after quite an ordeal, some of them ended up in Stutthof. The present volume is a milestone of research, which no historian with any claim to seriousness can afford to ignore.

Treblinka Extermination Camp or Transit Camp?

Chicago, 2004, Theses and Dissertation Press, <pdf> 371 p. translated from German by Regina Belser, 12,8M

Holocaust survivors report that at least 700,000, if not as many as three million people primarily of Jewish faith were murdered in the Treblinka camp, located in eastern Poland, between the summers of 1942 and 1943. Various murder weapons are claimed to have been used: mobile or stationary gas chambers; poison gas with delayed or immediate effect; unslaked lime; hot steam; high voltage; machine guns; vacuum chambers; chlorine gas; Zyklon B; diesel exhaust gas. According to the witnesses, the corpses of the victims were finally incinerated on pyres as high as a multi-story building without leaving any traces. In the first part of this book, the official image portrait of Treblinka is subjected to a thorough critique regarding its historical genesis, inner logic, and technical feasibility. The result of this analysis is essentially that the historical picture, which is prescribed by penal law in many European countries, is untenable, because it is nothing more than an uninterrupted chain of absurdities. In the second part of this book, the authors attempt to determine the real function of the Treblinka camp with the help of witness statements, documents, and forensic findings. Through their analysis, they conclude that Treblinka was a transit camp, through which Jews from Warsaw and other areas were led on their way either to occupied Soviet territories in the east or to the Majdanek camp and other labor camps in the area south of Treblinka.

From November, 1910, when the conspirators met on Jekyll Island, Georgia, to the present time, the machinations of the Federal Reserve bankers have been shrouded in secrecy. Today, that secrecy has cost the American people a three trillion dollar debt, with annual interest payments to these bankers amounting to some three hundred billion dollars per year, sums which stagger the imagination, and which in themselves are ultimately unpayable.

Paul Rassinier \(1906-1967\) Socialist, Pacifist and Revisionist

<pdf> 100 p. 750 K

Translation done in the US of a preliminary thesis by J. Plantin at Lyon-III in 1990. The traditional enemies of freedom had the court nullify the thesis and himself condemned to not practise his job as a publisher, with a time in jail (suspended). After a long struggle, the French courts restored his diploma and lifted the ban.

Paul Rassinier is the generally acknowledged founder of scholarly Holocaust revisionism. Born in France on March 18, 1906, he was trained as an educator.

During the Second World War, he co-founded the "Libé-Nord" underground Resistance organization, which helped smuggle Jews from German-occupied France into Switzerland. As a result, he was arrested by the Gestapo in October 1943 and deported to Germany, where he was held prisoner until the end of the war in Buchenwald and Dora concentration camps.

After returning home, the French government recognized his courage and suffering with the highest decoration awarded for Resistance activities. He was also elected to the French National Assembly as a deputy of the Socialist party (SFIO).

Rassinier was profoundly distressed by the many lies and myths about the concentration camps that were being circulated. He wrote: "Then one day I realized that a false picture of the German camps had been created and that the problem of the concentration camps was a universal one, not just one that could be disposed of by placing it on the doorstep of the National Socialists. The deportees - many of whom were Communists - had been largely responsible for leading international political thinking to such an erroneous conclusion. I suddenly felt that by remaining silent I was an accomplice to a dangerous influence." In a series of books, Rassinier related his camp experiences, and sought to set the record straight about the camps and Germany's wartime Jewish policy. A collection of four of his most important writings - La Passage de la ligne, Le Mensonge d'Ulysse, Ulysse trahi par les siens, and Le Drame des Juifs européens - has been published in an English translation under the title Debunking the Genocide Myth, later renamed The Holocaust Story and The Lies of Ulysses.

Rassinier became increasingly skeptical of the reports of systematic killings of Jews in gas chambers:

"With regard to gas chambers, the almost endless procession of false witnesses and of falsified documents to which I have invited the reader's attention during this long study, proves, nevertheless, only one thing: never at any moment did the responsible authorities of the Third Reich intend to order - or, in fact, order - the extermination of the Jews in this or any other manner. Did such exterminations take place without orders? This question has haunted me for 15 years."

The number of Jews who perished in Europe during the war years, he concluded, could not have been more than about 1.6 million.

Among the many who were impressed by Rassinier was the great American historian Harry Elmer Barnes. In a 1962 essay, "Revisionism and Brainwashing," Barnes remarked on "the discouragement and smearing of outsiders like the distinguished French historian Paul Rassinier, who sought to expose the exaggerations of the atrocity stories."

Until his death on July 29, 1967, Rassinier was active in the anti-war movement.

Published in New York in 1989, by the Beate Klarsfeld Foundation, 564 p. (30 x 45 cm) with many illustrations. Translated into English by Peter Moss. External Site.

This useful and enlightening work by French pharmacist Jean-Claude Pressac is an ambitious defense of the Auschwitz extermination story against growing criticism from Holocaust revisionists. The author and the publishers -- "Nazi hunters" Beate and Serge Klarsfeld -- realize very clearly that Holocaust revisionism is not some temporary or frivolous phenomenon, but is a serious and formidable challenge that has already found many thoughtful adherents. This book is being promoted by the publishers as "a scientific rebuttal of those who deny the gas chambers."

Pressac's book is not easy to read. His writing is disorganized, needlessly convoluted and frequently unclear. It is often necessary to consult passages from widely divergent pages to understand this or that point he is trying to make. But perhaps we should be grateful for this confusion, because if Pressac were a clear and logical writer, the Klarsfelds might well have refused to publish his book. (Mark Weber)

"The Revealed End": Messianic Religious Zionism

This is an analysis of the "Kookian" movement, a religious current inside Zionism, which has always been part and parcel with the other non-religious better known components of Jewish hyper-nationalism. The Kooks, father and son, have been charismatic rabbis pushing for Nazi-type vital space (Lebensraum) - the Gush Emunim - always ready to wipe out the local indigenous population. How to get rid of these blood-thirsty monsters? Probably, the shooting squad. Any other suggestion?

The nationalist ideology of Rabbi Kook and his followers views the history of Zionism as an inevitable and decidedly messianic process, leading to the realization of prophetic predictions: "the State of Israel as the fulfillment of the biblical vision of redemption." Messianism is no longer to be seen as the antithesis of concrete reality. It is no longer merely a critique of what is, nor is it addressed only to the future. Rather, messianic redemption springs from present events; it is embodied and realized in them. "Our reality is one of teshuvah [return to God, repentance], and it is a messianic one," writes Kook. In other words, the traditional religious categories of holiness, redemption, and repentance have now assumed concrete form in the Zionist endeavor itself. They are given living, dynamic expression as part of the process of the return to Zion and the Jewish national revival. This is indeed "the true redemption". [...] Kook went so far as to say. "The State of Israel is a divine entity, our holy and exalted state!"

The Controversy of Zion

For the first time in <pdf>. 1956, published in 1978. 395 p. 7,4 M

Douglas Reed, Britain's foremost World War II London "Times" correspondent in Central Europe, reviews the long history of Talmudic Zionism. Since 1956, when Reed finished writing these last sentences, history has continued to endorse the correctness of his interpretation: "I believe the Jews of the world are equally beginning to see the error of revolutionary Zionism, the twin of the other destructive movement, and, as this century ends, will at last decide to seek involvement in common mankind".

Undoubtedly one of the most explosive and controversial books of the 20th century. The result of many years of painstaking work in the major research libraries of the world. Controversy challenges readers to come face-to-face with the thoroughly documented truths of ancient and modern history.

The second half of Controversy zeros in with deadly accuracy on books and documents only available in a few top-flight libraries. What emerges is a startling inside look at a diabolical age-old philosophy that presently threatens to engulf the world in a bloody tidal wave of hate and violence.

Among the stigmata of these young fanatics, whose nationalism is incurably linked with a land they have never trodden, the word "Uganda" is the most revelatory. Uganda is a country which never came within a hundred miles of Jewish history. It is a country which, according to my friend and neighbor, Sir Harry Johnston, whom the twentieth century found implicated in its administration, is inhabited by a dense population of negroes and Masai clothed and unashamed, many of them Christians, ticking away at typewriters. Pigmies take up any space left by these civilized children of Ham, and there is not room for a Jew to worm his way into the polity even as High Commissioner. Yet the whole literature of Zionism for a decade bristles with Uganda and Ugandaism. The region really offered to the Zionists by the magnanimity of Joseph Chamberlain was a plateau in the adjoining province of British East Africa. It was an empty, healthy territory, free from politicians and almost from insect pests, and the refusal thereof by the Jews was an historic blunder of the first magnitude, a spiritless contradiction of the Hebrew proverb: Leolam Tikkach (Always take). What could the "Elders of Zion" have been about, thus to refuse a slice of the planet which, according to a famous manufacturer of motor cars and myths, their one dream is to annex?

Since 1992, German scholar Germar Rudolf has been giving lectures to various mainstream audiences all over the world. His topic is very controversial: the Holocaust in the light of new forensic and historical findings. Initially his listeners think they know exactly what "the Holocaust" is all about, but their world view is completely turned upside down after the evidence is presented. Even though Rudolf presents nothing short of full-fl edged Holocaust revisionism, his arguments fall on fertile soil, because they are presented in a very pedagogically sensitive and scholarly way. This book is the literary version of Rudolf's lectures, enriched with the most recent findings of historiography to a topic regulated by penal law in many countries. The book's style is as unique as its topic: It is a dialogue between the lecturer on the one hand and the reactions of actual audience members on the other. Germar Rudolf introduces the reader to the most important arguments and counter arguments of Holocaust revisionism. The audience reacts with supportive, skeptical, and also hostile comments, questions, and assertions. The Lectures read like a vivid and exciting real-life exchange between persons of various points of view.

«To be sure, there were honest reviewers and reporters in New York, the New York Daily News, Newsweek, and The Progressive and on public radio and 60 Minutes, but most reviewers seemed to be in determined denial. "Some Jews," they allowed, "became murderers," but they called them "a small group of Jewish survivors" and "one Jewish woman and a handful of Jewish men" who essentially weren't Jews at all. They were "more communist than Jewish," a University of California professor wrote--they were "communists from Jewish families," "communists from Jewish backgrounds," "communists of Jewish origin." Now, I'd known these people seven years and I'd never thought I would read that. I'd interviewed twenty-three Jews who'd been in the Office, and one, just one, had considered himself a communist in 1945. He and the others had gone to Jewish schools, studied the Torah, been bar-mitzvahed, sometimes worn payes. In German camps, at the risk of their lives, some had madematzo on Pesach, and in 1945 they had lighted candles on Shabbas, held seders on Pesach, stood under huppas at weddings, sounded shofars on Rosh Hashanah, and fasted on Yom Kippur. By whose definition weren't they Jews? Not by the Talmud's, certainly, not by the government of Israel's or the government of Nazi Germany's. Had they died in the Holocaust, I'd have guessed that the world would count them among the six million.»

Jewish Ritual - Murder. A Historical Investigation

(Berlin, 1943) Translator's Preface by R. Belsler, Foreword by Johann von Leers, 346 p.. <pdf> 3M

The official 'party line' on Jewish Ritual-Murder is that all such incidents were crimes which ignorant and superstitious peasants blamed on innocent Jews during the Middle Ages. The truth, however, is different: these accusations predate both the Middle Ages and the start of the Christian era. Reports from a range of sources, varying widely in chronology and geographical setting, show remarkable consistency, and learned, conscientious investigators were often involved in ascertaining what actually occurred. In many cases - such as the Damascus double murders - men of known rectitude, intelligence and of wide experience in the world, such as Sir Richard Burton, confirmed its existence. The position I have come to after translating this work, is that the accusation of Jewish Ritual-Murder has always been based upon a real and not an imaginary, phenomenon, a historical reality. I believe that, for all practical purposes, and for a variety of reasons, genuine cases of Jewish Ritual-Murder were beginning to peter out at around the turn of the 20th century. I believe that they were perpetrated by what are usually referred to as the "ultra-Orthodox" Jews; after the mid 17th century, that means the Hasidim in particular; that up until the late 19th century, the existence of Jewish Ritual-Murder was more generally known to exist by the Jews themselves, although its practice was anything but universal among them. I believe that today, very few Jews know its history and most of them do indeed honestly regard it as a "libel." R. Belsler.

For the first time on Internet !

The pioneering work of the researchers of Nation of Islam

The Role of the Jews in the Transatlantic Slave Trade

The Most Controversial Book in America

The Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews (TSR) presents a multitude of compelling facts describing first hand accounts of a pernicious and extensive involvement of Jews in the African slave trade.

Jewish historians and scholars are extensively quoted in this easy to read and fascinating 334 page volume. Not since the release of W.E.B. DuBois' The Suppression of the African Slave Trade in 1896 has a more riveting discussion of the topic of slavery been offered for public inspection.

"The facts, as established by highly respected scholars of the Jewish community, are here exposed and linked by as sparse a narrative as is journalistically permitted for review by those interested in the subject," the authors, the Historical Research Department of the Nation of Islam, stated.

Every fact was painstakingly footnoted. The research was matchless and worthy of commendation. Attempts to assuage this work as allegedly "anti-Semitic" or "anti-Jewish" falls on its face given the fact that the work contains the contributions of "respected scholars of the Jewish community."

The power of this presentation is so strong that the facts cannot be refuted. Yet this work does not pretend to be the end-all on this subject of slavery. It provides a window to even more extensive research regarding slavery by its other co-conspirators, the white Christians of Europe, the Arabs of the Middle East, and the Black African leaders who sold their own people to the slave traders.

In light of the recent allegations of "Black anti-Semitism," this book calls attention to the evil and immoral practice by the Jews in the Black holocaust of which many scholars estimate that 250 million or more perished at the hands of white people during the trade in Black slaves.

The means and methods of suppression and subversion come to light in subchapters like the "Jews and the Great Nat Turner," (TSR, p. 211) "Black Slave Owners and Jews," (TSR, p. 212) and "Jewish Clergy and Black Slavery," (TSR, pp. 143-147) are but a few of the authoritative gems contained in this most important work of the final decade of the Twentieth Century.

A Historical Survey of Proposals to Transfer Arabs from Palestine, 1895-1947

The book was published on Internet, 1998-2003, by its author, in small pieces, <html>. The Net publisher, Gengis Khan publishers, recompiled it to get a single easy to handle volume, with footnotes at the foot of each page, in 2004. (PDF - 2,1 M. 297 p.)

The rabbi tells the story of the most monstrous political project of the nineteenth century. The author is a devoted supporter of the rightist fringes of the Zionist movement, those who think that Sharon is sold to the Arabs ! He compiled with a great care all the proposals, coming from all political sides, to empty Palestine of its native population. It appears that all and every Zionist had one and only one dream: to kick the Arabs out, and preferably dump them in Iraq. It also appears that if Zionist could not achieve their goal, it was due to the resistance and the resilience of the Palestinians, who started to actively oppose Zionist projects in 1936. Zionism is, in its essence, a crime, but an unfinished crime. Its only goal is to destroy others, non-Jews. This is the most important genocidal project of the passed century.

SIZER Rev. Stephen

Christian Zionism : Its History, Theology and Politics

Why we republish this text : The rev. Stephen Sizer has done an immense service to mankind, and to the peoples of the Middle East in particular, in analyzing what is called, in the US, "Christian Zionism", a purely American phenomenon, with a direct impact on the genocide practised in Palestine by the Israeli authorities.

"Stephen Sizer's Christian Zionism : Road Map to Armageddon? is essential reading for any western evangelical trying to understand the religious dimensions of American support for Israel. Sizer writes as an insider within the church, not as a critic watching from afar. And he shows with exacting clarity how evangelical eschatology has now embedded itself in a modern political ideology. One quick read of this book will change anyone's perspective on the Middle East permanently." Professor Gary M. Burge, Professor of New Testament, Wheaton College & Graduate School, Wheaton (author of Whose Land, Whose Promise? What Christians Are Not Being Told About Israel and the Palestinians).

"Stephen Sizer's work on Christian Zionism is the most important and comprehensive on the subject to date, and should be read by all students of the Middle East and by Christians concerned about a just resolution to the Palestinian-Israeli conflict. Christian Zionism raises vital theological and political challenges that must be addressed head-on by Christians in the West, particularly evangelicals. The impact of this terribly misguided movement is increasingly putting Christians in the Middle East at risk, and it seems a far cry from the witness and message of Jesus Christ." Bombing Vindicated

The bombers' ideology. London, 1944, Geoffrey Bles, 157 p. (PDF - 600 K)

Another entry in the World War sweepstakes. See a British functionary (he was Principle Asst. Sec. of the Air Ministry) gleefully admit to the planned bombing of non-combatant targets, and how this was supposedly a wonderful advance in international conduct (it was supposed to "shorten the war" and allow him to look Russia in the face). It became a "splendid decision" (p. 74) to violate international law! He seems to be saying that it was OK as long as it was done in a cold, premeditated fashion (an artifact of fully judaized, freemasonic England). He also says this had been planned from the earliest stages of the war -- and how dare the Germans complain about it! Must be read to be believed.

This book may seem to have been written by a wild outcast. But it is the bible of modern bombers, Churchill, Reagon, Clinton, the Bushes, Mitterrand, Bernrad Kouchner and many others. All advocated or praticed heavy long-range bombings. The "civilization" those bombs are imposing is the Coca-Cola one, together with the Hollywood subculture, an achievement vastly inferior to the one attained by our Neolithic ancestors.

STAEGELICH Wilhelm

Auschwitz. A Judge Looks at the Evidence

<pdf>, 304 p. Institute for Historical Review, 1986. 3 M

The leading work by German Revisionism

Auschwitz: A Judge Looks at the Evidence may be fairly said to be unique. Its author, Dr. Wilhelm Stäglich, brings the rare perspective of a wartime eyewitness, whose duties as a German anti-aircraft artillery officer took him to Auschwitz in 1944, and an experienced magistrate, who served for twenty years in the judiciary of the West German city of Hamburg. Dr. Stäglich's special interest in the wartime history of Auschwitz, widely regarded today as a key center for the extermination of European Jews, stems from his own observations and experiences at the camp. His duties as an officer on the staff of the 12th Paratroop Anti-Aircraft Artillery Detachment, tasked with defending the industrial complex attached to Auschwitz, included several visits to the main camp during the summer of 1944.

Auschwitz: A Judge Looks at the Evidence, is a systematic, critical examination of the documents, testimonies, confessions, and personal accounts which represent Auschwitz as a center for programmatic extermination by gassing and other means. The fulminations of Hitler and Goebbels, the bureaucratic formulations of Himmler and Eichmann, the confessions of Auschwitz commandant Rudolf Höss, the accounts of Auschwitz inmates from Vrba and Nyiszli to Filip Müller and Primo Levi, the vast accumulation of expert testimony at the famous West German Auschwitz trial: Dr. Stäglich has sifted through all of them, evaluated all of them, and pronounced on their evidential value in establishing Auschwitz as an extermination center.

Dr. Staeglich paid dearly for his intrepid search for Holocaust truth:

"In the mid-twentieth century appeared a phenomenon which, we had come to believe, had vanished in the sixteenth century: the University of Goettingen withdrew the doctorate degree it had awarded to Dr. Wilhelm Staeglich in 1951. This was a logical consequence of the return to the stupidities of a distant past. Dr. Wilhelm Staeglich, German judge and historian, has defended the honor of Germany's judges and historians. He himself has lost almost everything, but not his honor." (Professor Robert Faurisson)

Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler

1976, Arlington House, 162 p. <pdf>

Since the early 1920s unsubstantiated reports have circulated to the effect that not only German industrialists, but also Wall Street financiers, had some role - possibly a substantial role - in the rise of Hitler and Naziism. This book presents previously unpublished evidence, a great deal from files of the Nuremburg Military Tribunals, to support this hypothesis.

The contribution made by American capitalism to German war preparations before 1940 can only be described as phenomenal. It was certainly crucial to German military capabilities. For instance, in 1934 Germany produced domestically only 300,000 tons of natural petroleum products and less than 800,000 tons of synthetic gasoline; the balance was imported. Yet, ten years later in World War II, after transfer of the Standard Oil of New Jersey hydrogenation patents and technology to I. G. Farben (used to produce synthetic gasoline from coal), Germany produced about 6 1/2 million tons of oil - of which 85 percent (5 1/2 million tons) was synthetic oil using the Standard Oil hydrogenation process.

Antony Sutton - Chaos, confusion and ultimately a battle between the individual and the State. The individual is the stronger; and will win. The state is a fiction sanctified by Hegel and his followers to CONTROL the individual. Sooner or later people will wake up. This book would not have been possible without the efforts of the 9/11 truth movement, a true planetary cooperation by citizens of the world, which was called into being by the crimes of September 11, 2001 and the subsequent coverup. I am indebted for many insights to numerous authors of print and internet studies of 9/11; the extent of this indebtedness and the names of the individual researchers are acknowledged in the text and the bibliography. The 9/11 truth movement, its activists, organizers, filmmakers and demonstrators, has had the immense historical merit of opposing those who have sought to incarcerate the intellectual life of the world in a grim new prison house of the human spirit, the monstrous 9/11 myth.

See for instance table 3, p. 75 which has the following title : "Multifactor Logistic Model Predicting the Probability a Repondent Reports an Anti-Semitic Index Exceeding 5 from the Anti-Israel Index."

« If antisemitism is, as some have described it, a virus that attacks society, then it is a virus that mutates with the times. The remedies of the past are not necessarily the remedies that will work today. Any plan that does not factor in the influence of the new technology (including satellite TV) is simply not going to be effective. So what can we do ? For on thing, I would suggest not getting bogged down in a useless debate over the US' First Amendment. That provides a convenient excuse for doing nothing. [...] . We must make people aware of the misinformation and techniques used by extremists. This requires teaching critical reading skills from an early age to get away from the syndrome of if something is in print, then it must be true. "

<pdf> by aaargh, 4,5 M, Internet publication (not yet complete) 2003-2008, 545 p.

From the Introduction : The Nazi Hydra was conceived to fill a gap in the literature by providing a detailed overview of the influence of fascism within the United States. The intent and motivation for such a project was twofold: to sound an ominous warning as to the direction this country is taking at the hands of the right wing and to provide a convenient all encompassing source on fascism in the United States for the reader. In this regards the chapters are heavily documented. And I urge the reader here and throughout the book to read the sources cited for further details. [...] Some readers will undoubtedly find the Nazi Hydra disturbing. They shudder at reports of another Nazi war criminal being deported and the crimes against humanity that he inflicted onto others. They fear to ask the question how such a person could slip into the country or how many more are present. Others may be livid with anger as the Nazi Hydra details the associations of the Republican Party and past presidents: Nixon, Ford, Bush and Reagan with Nazi war criminals. But history cannot be rewritten and it's a story that must be told. Those that aided Nazi war criminals are no less guilty of crimes against humanity than any of the Nazi war criminals and need be held fully accountable at the end of a hangman's rope at Nuremberg.

GOTHIC RIPPLES

<pdf> 10 p., Occasional Report by Collin Jordan, No.19, Feb. 1988, typewritten, 2,8M

A campaign has been mounted in Britain and across the world calling for anti-Communist refugees said to have committed "war crimes" -- namely tens of thousands of them -- to be put on trial where they are, or handed over to Communist countries or to Israel for punishment. Its timing is to refuel the legend of the "Holocaust", the myth of the 6 million Jews exterminated by the Nazis, which is World Jewry's most powerful propaganda, but which is increasingly damaged by doubt, if not denial. [...]

Gothic Ripples condemns all genuine atrocities by whoever committed. It no less condemns all those who concoct and market atrocity stories to generate hatred against Hitler's Germany, and thereby to frighten off by reflex all criticism of Jews; and no less condemns those such as Douglas Hurd [British Home Secretary] whose contorted humanitarianism ignores what Jews and their collaborators do against those the Jews regard as enemies.

We reproduce the English translation, new to us, of a part of an important book written by Pierre Guillaume, of The Old Mole Group, on our relations with Noam Chomsky. The translation was meant as a weapon AGAINST Chomsky, seen from the point of view of the most extreme conservative Zionism. Paul Bogdanor, the publisher of this English translation is a fanatical Zionist. To him, Chomsky is worse than the Devil himself. His site is a collection of the most reactionary point of views of the last 40 years !!! The guy must be a comic ! The translation is preceded by a note, which is pure calumny :

NB: The following essay, by a leading French Holocaust denier, gives a detailed account of Chomsky's collaboration with the French Holocaust denial movement. Chomsky's remarks at the end indicate that he assisted the Holocaust denier in the preparation of this essay. Readers are forewarned that the author is an antisemite and a Nazi apologist; therefore much of the material that follows is extremely offensive. Translated from French - Webmaster.

International Crisis Group, <pdf>, Feb. 2006, 36 p., 700 K

Several important conclusions emerge: 1/ The insurgency increasingly is dominated by a few large groups with sophisticated communications. 2/ There has been gradual convergence around more unified practices and discourse, and predominantly Sunni Arab identity. 3/ Despite recurring contrary reports, there is little sign of willingness by any significant insurgent element to join the political process or negotiate with the U.S. 4/ The groups appear acutely aware of public opinion and increasingly mindful of their image. 5/ The insurgents have yet to put forward a clear political program or long-term vision for Iraq.

The insurgency is increasingly optimistic about victory. Such self-confidence was not there when the war was conceived as an open-ended jihad against an occupier they believed was determined to stay. Optimism stems from a conviction the legitimacy of jihad is now beyond doubt, institutions established under the occupation are fragile and irreparably illegitimate, and the war of attrition against U.S. forces is succeeding.

And one incontrovertible fact that is never mentioned is the truth we have discussed today - Armenians died because of conflicts started by Armenians. The Turks responded to Armenian attacks. Sometimes the Turks overreacted ; sometimes they acted out of revenge, sometimes the actions of Turks and Kurds were wrong. But the Turks did not start the bloodshed. They did not start the long conflict between Armenians and Muslims that began in the 1790s. They did not start the conflict between Turks and Armenians in World War I. In 1796, was it Turks who attacked Armenians ? No, it was Armenian rebels who allied themselves with the enemies of their country.

Ritual murder cults have existed from prehistoric times to the present. Almost all cultures and religions, including Northern Europeans, contain evidence of similar phenomena. Cults sometimes came to control entire societies as evidenced by the Aztec, Maya and Inca cultures.

Such a sub-group became intertwined with the development of Hebraic religion from the earliest times as evidenced by the Old Testament. While some writers accused the entire Judaic faith, this conclusion seems unwarranted, yet the roots are found in the Cabala, Talmud, and the more secretive oral traditions. This blood cult was quite active during the mid-nineteenth century, and as we will demonstrate, the 1840 Damascus case was by no means the only one of its day.

THE BANKING RACKET

HAVE YOU ever wondered where the Banks get all their money from? When they grant you a loan or allow you an overdraft, where does the money come from? According to Frederick Soddy, former eminent Oxford University Professor, Banks are: "Institutions which pretend to lend money, and do not lend it, but create it, and when it is repaid to them, de-create it and have achieved the physically impossible miracle thereby, not only of getting something for nothing but also of getting perennial interest from it." So the Banks create money out of nothing and charge you, the customer, over 10% interest to borrow it. And woe betide you if you default. It is a delusion promoted by the Banks themselves that they are merely the custodians of their customers' deposits, that they lend these same deposits, and that their profit consists of the difference in the rate of interest they pay depositors, and the interest they receive from borrowers. The truth is that no Bank lends as much as a penny of the money deposited with it. Every Bank loan or overdraft is a creation of entirely new money (credit) and is a clear addition to the amount of money in the community. It is no more than a record in a Bank ledger or computer and is actually the creation of new money out of nothing.

Truth for Germany

The Guilt Question of the Second World War

New translation from German. Historical Review Press (GB) <pdf> 533 p., 16M

The hypothesis of Germany's Guilt for the Second World War is refuted. Future historical research could, if need be, amplify the facts compiled in this book, but it can no longer prove them non-existent. There is available to the public today a considerable number of documents, both from home and abroad, on the foreign policies of the Great Powers before September 1939, as well as a wealth of literature in the memoirs-field of the persons directly involved in the decisions that would lead to the outbreak of the War. Together, they make possible a mosaic-like reconstruction of the events before the outbreak of the War in 1939.

This book has been published only after an intensive study of sources, taking the greatest care to avoid all guesswork interpretations. It serves not any one particular party, nor is it meant solely for the German people ; the aim, rather, is to contribute towards new understandings and cognizance for mankind.

This is a new translation. The book is available on paper. The reader is kindly advised to buy such a precious book from

Jewish Emigration from the Third Reich

Translated by F. Töben, Chicago, 2004, These & Dissertation Press, 73 p., <pdf> 700K

The truth is that the emigration was welcomed by the German authorities, and frequently occurred under a constantly increasing pressure. The anti-Semitic legislation of the Third Reich is an undisputed fact in this emigration story. Likewise, the psychological pressure that Jews in Germany came to experience after 1933 is not trivialized here; [...] The purpose of this work is to elucidate the emigration process in law and policy, thereby augmenting the traditionally received picture of Jewish emigration from Germany. German and Jewish authorities worked closely together on this emigration. Jews interested in emigrating received detailed advice and offers of help from both sides. The accounts of Jews fleeing Germany in secret by night across some border are untenable. On the contrary, the German government was interested in getting rid of its Jews. It would have been senseless to prevent such an emigration.

Expanding Holocaust Denial and Legislation Against It

AAARGH reprints, aug. 2008, <pdf> 300K

Over half the states of Europe now criminalize Holocaust denial. They accept the premise that deniers are extremists who use denial, among other means, to rehabilitate Nazism. Their legal rationale in doing so is usually that denial negates the historical facts established at Nuremberg in 1945 rather than that it constitutes offensive or threatening speech. International agreements take the same line and this was reinforced and given a legal basis in April 2007 by the EU Common Framework Decision, which requires European states to criminalize denial. Legislation, however, has not stopped extremists from continuing to promote Holocaust denial and they are now joined and invigorated by Iran, which promotes it as state policy. Nevertheless, states now accept that Holocaust education is vital and several intergovernmental initiatives offer hope for the future.

Canada is merely a geographical expression, not a political entity, says R. Rogers Smith, long-time battler for the right of Canadians to vote as Canadians, a right he claims they have never possessed. In his final chapter the author proposes a " do-it-yourself " method whereby the individual Canadian can assert this right. Writing often in a style, which has brought consternation to officialdom, R. Rogers Smith blends a scholar's knowledge of Canada's political history with a formidable array of facts, which cannot be disputed.

THE HAYWARD FILE

In 1993, Mr Joel Hayward, then student at Cantorbery University (New Zealand) wrote a thesis. The subject was Holocaust Revisionism. Mr Hayward was not himself a revisioist. But in order to write an objective assessment, he listened to both sides, revisionists and anti-revisionnists. We, revisionists, have never considered Dr. Hayward as one of us, but only as someone who attempted to build an objective point of view. Put under heavy pressures, Mr Hayward recanted. As much as Mr Joel Hayward is entitled, in year 2000, to change his opinions and disavow his 1993 work, the public, for whom the thesis has been written and passed (giving Mr Hayward a title), has a right to know its content. The university logically refused to withdraw it from its shelves, meaning it now belongs to the public domain.

We then will follow our vocation and display the thesis on Internet, acknowledging both that it is the work of Mr Hayward and that he now disowns it.

CRITICAL COMMENTARIES ON

HOLOCAUST AND REVISIONISM

More and more, we see critical reflexions on the Holocaust (as an image, as a tool for political benefit, as a mean of pressure for financial and political gains, and so on) and on Revisionism, as an infant discipline of critique in the historical field, its methods and aims, often suspected of concealed political agenda, or outright racism. Reflecting on it is like walking into a minefield. In some countries, it is forbidden by law! Think of that!

We are going to put here some contributions on these subjects coming from a variety of sources. It will not mean, of course, that we agree on all points. We just want to show that there is room for thinking. And time too.

IRVING vs LIPSTADT

David Irving is a well-known historian, self-educated, working outside of the academic circles and producer of about thirty books, most of them on the Nazi period of Germany. The dominant feature of his books is the extensive and deep use of original documents, many of them unearthed by Irving himself, in adventures that could make good books in themselves.

Deborah Lipstadt is a rather unknown quantity, a scholar without known titles, who writes under the spell of an unhealthy obsession about Antisemitism. She seems to believe that all views which are not within the framework of the historical explanations provided by Yad Vashem authorities stem from a desire to destroy the Jews again and again. This strange delusion led her to publish a crypto-satanic book, Denying the Holocaust, which we perversely redisplayed on this website to appraise ours readers with what intellectual decadence can provide at its best.

Concerning Lipstadt, it is interesting to note that she never writes on what happened in history -- in Germany. She writes about what other people write about what happened in Germany, of which she has nos special knowledge. She judges from a certain point of view; but this point of view is not the historians' one, but the vantage point of view of US Jewish organizations for which the Holocaust is a a very wealthy business to be tapped as much as possible. And concerning her knowledge of writers she is attacking, we have determined that she is a sleazy and partial observer. She does not even know the languages in which all these stories and events are told, outside of English... Her book is full or errors, omisions, black spots, misperceptions, and so on. Very unacademic indeed.

In her book, D. Lipstad has quite a number of derogatory sentences about David Irving. (See pages 8, 14, 111, 161-3, 170, 179-81, 213, 215, 221, 232-4.) Facing increasing economic pressures on his ability to publish hhs works, since he had recognized some value in the revisionist arguments, David Irving selected Lipstad as one of the pack hunters that are trying to ruin his career, his works and his life as an independent researcher. This is the origin of the present trial in 1996. He explains it in the Opening Statement (see below).

We suggest to our readers, if they wish to follow closely, day after day, the developments of the trial, to connect directly on Irving's website: www.fpp.co.uk/online.html. Those who read French may wish to read our comments.

The Ancestors of present-day Holocaust revisionism

We intend to display here important texts which have led to the existence of Holocaust Revisionism as it is today. This does not mean, of course, that we espouse every single word or sentence which has been uttered in this long, apparently endless controversy. Every author has his own responsibility. But many documents are difficult to find and we believe that the reader has the right, in good faith or not, to gain some understanding of the background and the past battles to establish points of views.

The first document is Raul Hilberg's self destructive performance in Toronto in 1985.

We have opened a new space devoted to our Opponents.

Readers will see their arguments and judge by themselves. We have opened a new chapter in the French section called "What our adversaries are saying", with the aim of posting the main classical anti-revisionist works, to allow the readers to make their own comparison. We now do the same in English, although of course the availability of documents is not the same in French and English.

The use of terror is producing results. After having been pressured and terrorized for several years by the Jewish defence League, a young Jewish revisionist has recanted. The fact in itself is of little significance. What is more revealing is the style of confession extracted by the JDL. The worst Stalinian trial did not do better. The confession has a religious overtone. It has all the characters of a conversion. Never before the religious nature of the Holocaust faith has been more clearly dictated by the JDL which is proud of its success.

Sensitive souls please abstain: This document is sickening.

We have also added a number of documents, including the 46 Questions (1995) of David Cole about the gas Chambers. Questions still awaiting answers from the JDL and consorts...

Many revisionists have spent and are still spending a enormous amount of energy to fight cases in courts. With the exception of the Toronto trials which had the advantage of dragging in front of a hostile court a great number of important witnesses and experts, most other trials were just losses of time and energy. We can see why: in a document made public by the Human Rights Committee of the United Nations in Geneva, we see how international "independent" judicial luminaries are able to twist words and ideas so that at the end they can trample the very principles they are supposed to support. If you are not yet disgusted by this institution they call "Justice", then browse through this document which REJECTS PROF. FAURISSON'S DEMAND for freedom of thinking and research.

We have added a thick GOLDHAGEN FILE, called "Crazy Goldie", after one of the main reviews of the book written by this immature pseudo-scholar. The book has been an enormous success but we have probed into the opinions of some segments of the intelligentsia. The nutshell of this file is the two devastating reviews which have recently shaken the quiet little world of the Holocaust-is-my-job crowd and made Goldhagen rush to his lawyers. There has been a lot of pressure to suppress these two pieces and that is why we offer them to Internet readers.

A book containing the two reviews by Finkelstein and Birn has been finally published in New York. The war between the Goldhagenites, supported by the Jewish organizations, and the scholars, unanimously hostile to Goldie, is going on. All of this is visible ON THIS SITE

The book has been translated and published in French (Summer 1999); it has been savaged by the Jewish Le Monde commentator, N. Weill (3 Sept. 99) See Actualité, Septembre 1999, in our French section.

Antisemitism, Its History and Causes

This book overturns the ideological basis of both antisemitism and the Jewish apologetic literature. Its starts from the facts and a thorough study of the relationship of the Jewish communities with their non-Jewish social environment. It is a REPLY to Drumont's confused antisemitism and to its mirror image in the fantasies entertained by many Jews on their own history. LAZARE died in 1903, before he could assess the development of Zionism, of which he was both one of the builders and one of the first critics.

Zionism in the Age of Dictators

A fine book, out of print, analyzing the mirror relations between the then small Zionist movement and dictatorial powers.

July 1998: one of our readers writes

<Lenni Brenner's, Zionism in the Age of Dictators is available from the American Education Trust the publishers of Washington Report on Middle East Affairs. The price is $7.95 each or $9.95 for two plus $2.50 shipping for the first title plus $.50 for each additional. I purchased my copies about six weeks ago.

At the time I received a quantity of material from the American Education Trust included were some seven "white papers" including one by Lenni Brenner. The title of Brenner's paper was The Anti-Defamation Leagues National Director is Crazy Like a Foxman. The theme of the paper is Brenner's response to Foxman's alleged libel and makes for interesting reading. However I found Brenner's hostile attitude towards revisionism distressing and his cutting words toward the Institute for Historical Review particularly vile. In a response to Tom Marcellus written by Brenner in 1985 and quoted in the paper he states, "All of the above is bullshit. I share not one iota of your mad ideology. I am your implacable opponent. I do not believe you have any right to exist; and I support any and all attempts, by any and all, Zionist or Anti-Zionist, to bust up your institute and your meetings."

While I agree that Brenner has provided a good insight into the Zionist mind and operation, I do not trust him.>

WHY AAARGH IS HERE

A ghost haunts the world. The ghost of Revisionism. From among the many circumstances where the word "revisionism" has been applied, it is commonly assumed nowadays that Revisionists are those who accept as a demonstrated fact that no massive gassing could have occurred in the German concentration camps during the Nazi regime. They also, with many other experts, consider that no definitive figure is available for the indeniably great losses suffered by Jewish communities during WW II. They request the application of the routine objective historical methods to analyze the events which led to the end of the War, because it is a crucial part of our common history.

REVISIONISM IS NOT POLITICAL AND HAS NO POLITICS OF ITS OWN.

Revisionism is the basic fact of the historical approach. This is what makes the difference between history and religious dogma. In a religious dogma, the truth has been established and authenticated once and for all. There is no room for doubt. The human being needs certainties and may find comfort in dogmas, long established in our cultures.

History is a quest for understanding the past from the point of view of the present. Today, now, we feel we want to know and understand, in our own words, what happened 20 years, 50 years, 500 years ago. What our predecessors understood is only one part of the picture. We have to REVISE their judgement with our own way of thinking and maybe the documents that we found, or that we considered in a new way. Our understanding is in a constant flow of evolution. This is true of Attila or Julius Caesar, this is true of the Italian Renaissance or the French Revolution. It will inescapably be true of WW II and all the sufferings it created in many parts of our tiny world.

Revisionist belong to all shades of political persuasions. But they have been victims of the most vicious physical, intellectual, legal attacks coordinated and organized by those who are committed to the defence of Israel and the political, financial and military privileges that Israel is drawing from a conventional and partial and, we believe, misleading representation of WW II. That is why all those who are the targets of these ferocious attacks have developed a sense of solidarity which goes beyond their individual political views, widely different from each other. They recognize that facts are of primary importance and should be established in a conventional way in order to write history. The interpretation of facts is everyone personal concern and has nothing to do with revisionism as such. Revisionists as such do not concern themselves with races or racism, with the taboos established by the fiat of this or that group, with any political tenet, nor with any suggestion that truth should be submitted to any political power or reason of State.

In Europe, we Revisionists of all shades, want to express our gratitude to those in Sweden who run Radio Islam and established the first Europe Revisionnist Website. Since the fall of Soviet Union, everybody can see that Islam is built as the next Official Enemy needed by our warmongers, armament industries, oil lobbies and impotent politicians. As revisionist, we are trained to see the silly propaganda content of so-called "news" displayed by the media. We know that political and historical lies are the necessary foundations for the preparation of war. We are committed to fight these lies when we detect them.

The ghost will materialize. The media, the political circles all buzz with the delusion that Internet is totally perverted by an all-powerful Revisionist Plot. As it has been the case for the last 20 years, our enormous power is produced almost entirely by this self delusion of our adversaries. We are a handful of powerless people, with poor connections and no money. But we have done our homework. We know what we talk about. This is our only strength and in a world of lies, half-truths and near-complete ignorance, this strength has fabulous results.

We see the act of displaying a written document on Internet as the equivalent to displaying it on the shelves of a public library. It costs us a modicum of labor and money. The only benefit accrues to the reader who, we surmise, thinks by himself. A reader looks for a document on the Web at his or her own risks. As for the author, there is no reason to suppose that he or she shares any responsibility for other writings displayed on this Site. Because laws enforcing a specific censorship on some historical question apply in various countries (Germany, France, Israel, Switzerland, Canada, and others) we do not ask their permission from authors living in those places: they wouldn't have the freedom to consent.

We believe we are protected by the Human Rights Charter:

ARTICLE 19. <Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.>The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on December 10, 1948, in Paris.
